'63 Budget Expected To Be Balanced

President Giving Priority To State Of Union Message

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy gave priority today to work on his State of the Union Message, with Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman joining the conference sessions.

The President, basking in the warm sun of his seaside White House, continued a holiday schedule of relaxation, conferences and hospital visits to his ailing 73-year-old father.

Advisers here let it be known Wednesday that work has been concluded on the 1963 budget, that Kennedy has approved it and that it is balanced. It is expected to be in the neighborhood of 92 billion, about $3 billion above this year.

Today, the President turned to the important State of the Union Message which he personally will deliver to Congress shortly after it convenes on Jan. 10.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said Kennedy probably will spend the rest of the week working on this review of the nation's progress in the past year, both foreign and domestic. It also traditionally includes a prediction of what may lie ahead.

Five top-level advisers have been sitting in on the daily sessions with Kennedy. The latest was secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, who drove here Wednesday from his winter home at nearby Hobe Sound.

After looking in on the elder Kennedy, whose illness has been the center of family attention during this holiday season, the President returned for his own year-end medical check-up.

Dr. Preston Wade, a New York specialist, reported the health of the President, 44, was generally excellent and that his troublesome back condition had improved. But he added that Kennedy will have to wait several months more before he can once again resume vigorous physical activity, such as playing golf.

And, said Dr. Wade, the President "must expect to experience, as do all people with similar back troubles, ups and downs and occasional setbacks."

Zero Likely In Cold Wave

Temperatures Dip To Lows Of Season

Frigid Arctic air was tumbling Tri-State District temperatures this morning as a cold wave moved in from the west with a possible zero low forecast for tonight.

What could be the coldest weather of the season will bring zero to 10 above in the East Liverpool area after range of only 18 to 24 during the day.

The downtown had a reading of 23 at 6 a.m. and it fell by one degree in an hour with the drop expected to accelerate.

Other parts of the state had more frigid lows this morning—Pandora, 2 below; Findlay, 2 above; Toledo, 3 above; Columbus, 10; Zanesville, 18, and Cincinnati, 13.

The extreme cold will hold back any snow and only flurries are forecast today through Friday, which will continue cold.

Light snow forecast yesterday soon melted and ice developed on stretches of roads as the temperature dropped last night. But highways were generally clear, as were downtown streets.

The cold weather held an icy grip across the Midwest and some of the frigid air dipped deep into parts of the Southland.

Snow, sleet and rain created hazardous driving conditions in the north and middle Atlantic regions and parts of the South. Light snow fell in northern Alabama, North Carolina and eastern Tennessee.

Three inches of snow covered areas in northwestern North Carolina and in Tennessee.

Light snow also fell in the Middle Mississippi Valley, the eastern Great Lakes region and the extreme northern Plains.

Below zero again hit areas in Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Upper Michigan and Illinois.

Coldest air appeared centered in Wisconsin during the morning. It was -15 in Wausau, -12 in Green Bay and -10 in La Crosse. It also was -10 in Marquette, Mich., and -8 in Minneapolis.

Nice Surprise Forthcoming, Prince Hints

Neutralist Phouma Asks 3 Or 4 Days In Laotian Crisis

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma smiled and told reporters Thursday: "Let me work on this three or four days. Maybe you will have quite a nice surprise."

That was Souvanna's summary of a day of behind-the-scenes talks among Laotians—watched over by U.S., British and Soviet ambassadors—to check prospects for revival of the Laotian three princes' abortive summit conference.

Premier Prince Boun Oum, a rightist, persisted in his refusal to sit with Phouma and Phouma's half-brother, Prince Souphanouvong, who is pro-Communist, to complete negotiations for a coalition government.

But Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, defense minister and strong man of Boun Oum's administration, paid a courtesy call on Souvanna at the latter's guarded villa, And Souvanna's expression of apparent optimism was issued after that meeting.

Souvanna, the premier-designate of the proposed new government, and his half-brother had separate audiences with King Savang Vathana. Results were not announced.

Souvanna warned earlier in a talk with newsmen that collapse of the negotiations could plunge Laos into an East-West war as well as revive the revolution technically halted by a cease-fire last May.

Souvanna and Souphanouvong were given the brushoff soon after they and their aides arrived in this administrative capital Wednesday.

Boun Oum challenged Souvanna's self-proclaimed neutrality and bluntly declared he was not prepared to bargain over cabinet posts in the proposed new government intended to ensure Laos' neutrality.

Offices, Firms Set Shutdown For Holiday

East Liverpool stores will be closed Monday. Because they have returned to their usual weekly schedule, they also will close Wednesday noon. The midweek half-holidays were skipped during the Christmas shopping season.

The Ohio State Liquor Stores here and at Wellsville will observe regular hours today but will be open from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. Friday and Saturday for holiday buyers. The stores will be closed Monday, resuming regular hours Tuesday.

Both the East Liverpool and Wellsville Post Offices will be closed although mail will be received and dispatched on a holiday schedule.

Plea Of Guilt Given In Theft Of $817,000

New Yorker Freed On Bail Of $5,000; May Get 30 Years

NEW YORK (AP)—Samuel Rubin, accused of mushrooming a forged $10,000 promissory note into an $817,000 swindle, pleaded guilty Wednesday to three counts of grand larceny.

General Sessions Court Judge George Postel released Rubin, 49, in $5,000 bail pending sentencing Feb. 16. Rubin could get up to 10 years on each count. Asst. Dist. Atty. Leonard Newman had described Rubin as cooperative with investigators.

Rubin's first forged note, for $10,000, occurred in 1945 while he was working for a commercial finance company.

During the next 15 years, the state said, Rubin poured more than $10 million in false notes through a bank account he had set up as a cover.

Principal victims of Rubin's operations were the Chemical Bank New York Trust Co. branch at Broadway and 38th St., which lost $475,000. Other losers were listed as Pam & Co., 370 Seventh Ave., and Cohen-Manheimer Co., 131 W. 30th St., both commercial finance concerns, $47,656 each. Stockholders in Rubin's firms were said to be out $249,288.

Rubin told authorities he always hoped to cover any larcenies with profits of his legitimate businesses, but he added, "I never quite did."

Last October Rubin, learning that the Chemical Bank was thinking of reviewing all its notes, invited a bank official to his home and confessed that he had some bad notes. He asked for time to raise the money. But banking officials went to the district attorney's office.

Killer Of Former Area Man Sentenced To Die

The killer of Robert A. Mosser, 25, formerly of Port Homer, has been sentenced to die in California.

A new trial was denied John Joseph Deptula, 47, bowling alley manager convicted of bludgeoning and dismembering Mosser, a fellow employe, and he was sentenced Wednesday at Los Angeles to die in the gas chamber.

Mosser was a maintenance man at the bowling alley. It was alleged during the trial that he found Deptula trying to rob the establishment July 26.

Mosser, former Irondale High School student, went to California in 1958. His dismembered body was found in a Los Angeles County park Aug. 1. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mosser of Bellaire, formerly resided at Port Homer.

6 Katangans Take Seats In National Congo Parliament

To Demand Revision Of Constitution

Tshombe To Hold Out For Federation Despite Unity Pact

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Six Katanga deputies took their seats today in the national Congo Parliament. They were expected to demand revision of the Congo's provisional constitution to relax the control the basic law gives the central government over Katanga and the other provinces.

Nine more Katanga deputies were due from Elisabethville today.

Seeing the first group off from Elisabethville, Katanga President Moise Tshombe said they would hold out for a Congo confederation that would give his rich province considerable independence despite the Kitona unity pact. The central government contended the terms Tshombe put on his deputies' mission were at sharp variance with the agreement he reached a week ago with Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula.

Tshombe charged in Elisabethville today that U.N. troops are preparing for a new military offensive against Katanga and that the U.S. ambassador in Leopoldville, Edmund A. Gullion, is behind it.

Tshombe told a hurriedly called news conference that the United Nations is planning to renew hostilities if the Katanga National Assembly fails to meet Jan. 3 to discuss his agreement with Adoula.

His charges against Gullion were apparently prompted because the U.S. envoy, acting on President Kennedy's instructions,

Mayor's Aide At Wellsville Resigns Post

The resignation of William S. Robinson as Wellsville's safety-service director was announced today. Mayor William J. Shoub said he received the resignation Wednesday.

It is effective Jan. 5, but Robinson will be leaving town Tuesday to accept employment with McGill & Smith of Cincinnati, consulting engineers.

Robinson will begin work Tuesday at Carey, Ohio, as a field engineer for the firm.

Under state law, Robinson's term runs through Jan. 8. But he still is due some vacation time, the reason for his leaving Tuesday, Shoub said.

The mayor said Fred Baldasare, who was appointed safety-service director by William Daugherty, mayor-elect, will begin his duties Tuesday instead of waiting until the following week.

McGill & Smith has served as engineers for the city on several projects, including its sewage disposal plant and the relocation of the main storm sewers.

Robinson was named director Sept. 1, 1954, by Shoub to succeed the late Fred Gluth. He was a member of City Council at the time and had been employed as a jiggerman for 15 years at the Sterling China Co. He has served continuously since.

He resides at 1753 Crawford Ave.

Baldasare, who will take over the $4,980 — a year post, resides at 1729 Chester Ave. His appointment was announced last week.

Robinson had announced at the last Council meeting that he would be leaving town to accept employment.

New Russian Ambassador To U.S. OK'd

Dobrynin Succeeds Menshikov To Post In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Anatoly Fedorovich Dobrynin, who is fluent in English, knows the United States well and likes international politics, will be the new Soviet ambassador to Washington.

The State Department said Wednesday that Dobrynin's appointment to succeed Mikhail A. Menshikov had been approved here. As a matter of courtesy, the host nation is asked to approve the envoy of another nation and consent is usually a formality.

Officials here said the appointment probably means no change in the basic Soviet policy toward the United States.

Dobrynin, 42 to Menshikov's 59, spent about eight years in the United States, both with the embassy here and the United Nations secretariat in New York. He speaks French as well as English, and in 1960 became head of the American countries division of the Soviet foreign ministry.

State Department officials who know him say Dobrynin is an intelligent, able diplomat who has an excellent background on U.S.-Soviet problems.

Blasts Wreck Tiny Village; 26 Injured

NORTON, Va. (AP)—A series of explosions wrecked a powder plant and destroyed or damaged every home in the tiny mountain village of Sutherland Wednesday. Twenty-six persons were injured.

Five explosions were touched off by a fire in the Whitaker Atlas Supply Co. The company sells blasting powder for mining operations.

The final explosion — which shook buildings and broke glass as far away as 10 miles—knocked down five nearby houses and heavily damaged the remaining 15 in Sutherland.

Twenty one persons were treated and released at Norton Hospital. Five others were admitted with serious injuries.

At Norton, six miles away, the explosion shattered plate glass windows along the city's main street.

Eichmann's Counsel To Seek More Time

COLOGNE, Germany (AP)—Dr. Robert Servatius, defense counsel for Adolf Eichmann, flew to Israel today to seek more time to prepare an appeal against the former SS colonel's death sentence.

Servatius has until Dec. 30 to submit an appeal against Eichmann's conviction and sentence.

Hearings Set For 2 In Feed Mill Burglary

Columbiana Man, Austintown Driver Face Theft Charges

Richard H. (Bat) Masterson, 25, of Columbiana R. D., and Robert E. Treharn, 40, of Austintown are scheduled for preliminary hearings today before County Judge Herbert E. Arfman in East Palestine.

Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan said both will be charged with burglary Tuesday night of the Smith Feed Mill on Route 30 near Cannons Mills, and Masterson with an additional charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

Treharn was the driver of a car which deposited Masterson at the mill and was apprehended before the return trip to pick him up, the sheriff said.

Two other occupants of the car —Treharn's wife, Dorothy Freeda, 35, and Masterson's brother, James, of Girard — were released Wednesday after questioning.

Masterson fled on foot when the pickup car did not return and the sheriff and deputies trailed him 10 miles through the snow, finally overtaking him on Route 7 south of Rogers.

He had a revolver in his coat pocket. The only loot apparently was six pair of work gloves which Masterson had in his possession.

Chief Deputy James Miller said Masterson admitted he is on probation for a Mahoning County conviction of burglary. Mahoning County records reveal that Masterson, formerly of Austintown township confessed to 16 burglaries in that county.

The sheriff said he had been keeping close watch on Masterson since he came into Columbiana County to reside on a farm southeast of Columbiana.

Mansfield Disputes GOP Claim Of Conservatism

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., disputed today Republican contentions that a wave of conservatism threatens administration programs in Congress.

Mansfield, the Senate Democratic leader, said in an interview his travels during the recess of Congress have convinced him the country "is still on the middle road, politically, and is going neither to the extreme right nor the extreme left."

"There is a need and a place for conservatives in our scheme of political things," he said. "But I would separate the real conservatives from the extreme right wingers who feel that they have the only answers to our problems —those who insist on dealing in black and white when all the world's problems are gray."

Rockefeller Keeps Door Open For Presidency Bid

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is keeping a door open for a possible bid for the Republican nomination for president in 1964.

At the same time, he is beginning a formal campaign with a declaration that his sole object is "re-election as governor of the state."

From what he said at a news conference Wednesday, Rockefeller is entering his campaign for re-election on the premise that:

1. Voters will re-name him governor on the basis of his record.

2. They would have no objection and would even encourage him if he later had an opportunity to win the presidential nomination.

3. A pledge to serve a full, four-year term is therefore unnecessary to win next year.

NORTON, Va. (AP)—A series of explosions wrecked a powder plant and destroyed or damaged every home in the tiny mountain village of Sutherland Wednesday. Twenty-six persons were injured.

Five explosions were touched off by a fire in the Whitaker Atlas Supply Co. The company sells blasting powder for mining operations.

The final explosion — which shook buildings and broke glass as far away as 10 miles—knocked down five nearby houses and heavily damaged the remaining 15 in Sutherland.

Twenty one persons were treated and released at Norton Hospital. Five others were admitted with serious injuries.

At Norton, six miles away, the explosion shattered plate glass windows along the city's main street.

Hearings Set For 2 In Feed Mill Burglary

Columbiana Man, Austintown Driver Face Theft Charges

Richard H. (Bat) Masterson, 25, of Columbiana R. D., and Robert E. Treharn, 40, of Austintown are scheduled for preliminary hearings today before County Judge Herbert E. Arfman in East Palestine.

Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan said both will be charged with burglary Tuesday night of the Smith Feed Mill on Route 30 near Cannons Mills, and Masterson with an additional charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

Treharn was the driver of a car which deposited Masterson at the mill and was apprehended before the return trip to pick him up, the sheriff said.

Two other occupants of the car —Treharn's wife, Dorothy Freeda, 35, and Masterson's brother, James, of Girard — were released Wednesday after questioning.

Masterson fled on foot when the pickup car did not return and the sheriff and deputies trailed him 10 miles through the snow, finally overtaking him on Route 7 south of Rogers.

He had a revolver in his coat pocket. The only loot apparently was six pair of work gloves which Masterson had in his possession.

Chief Deputy James Miller said Masterson admitted he is on probation for a Mahoning County conviction of burglary. Mahoning County records reveal that Masterson, formerly of Austintown township confessed to 16 burglaries in that county.

The sheriff said he had been keeping close watch on Masterson since he came into Columbiana County to reside on a farm southeast of Columbiana.

Rockefeller Keeps Door Open For Presidency Bid

At the same time, he is beginning a formal campaign with a declaration that his sole object is "re-election as governor of the state."

From what he said at a news conference Wednesday, Rockefeller is entering his campaign for re-election on the premise that:

1. Voters will re-name him governor on the basis of his record.

2. They would have no objection and would even encourage him if he later had an opportunity to win the presidential nomination.

3. A pledge to serve a full, four-year term is therefore unnecessary to win next year.

The governor discussed his political future at a news conference with several other Republi-

Lack Of Response

U.S. Retraining Program Gets Off To Slow Start

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—The nation's first federal retraining program for the jobless has gotten off to a slow start because—of all things—lack of widespread response from the people it was designed to help.

Only about 750 of the estimated 7,000 to 8,000 unemployed in West Virginia's Cabell and Wayne counties—rail, coal mining and industrial areas—have applied for retraining, even though pay is offered to those learning new jobs.

Officials connected with the program—designed as a federal pilot project to aid areas of chronic unemployment—are puzzled and disturbed by the relatively small number of applications.

"I'm concerned," says Clark D. Todd, a coal company executive who devoted considerable time working with the Cabell-Wayne redevelopment commission to help start the program here. "I thought we'd get more than a token response."

"Some of our unemployed people are just going to have to face facts and change their vocations to get jobs," says D. W. Fox Jr., the director of the Huntington East Trade School, where some of the retraining classes are held.

The program, set up under the U.S. Area Redevelopment Act, is financed by $15,000 in federal money. It is designed to retrain 325 jobless by June 30, end of the fiscal year. So far, only 200 unemployed have been certified for classes.

When the program was started, newspapers, television and radio stations participated in a publicity campaign to herald the aim of teaching workers with few job opportunities new skills they could use in new, less depressed vocations. Added icing to the cake was $23 a week subsistence pay offered while in training.

Some people anticipated a tremendous rush for the "get-paid-while-you-learn" program. It never came.

George Gunnoe, manager of the Huntington employment office, wasn't completely surprised that jobless workers didn't knock down doors to enroll.

"People are slow to act," he explains. "Besides, many in the area are skilled people expecting to be called back to work in plants or in the construction field."

The Huntington office lists 6,542 unemployed in its active file. These are people in the two-county area who have filed or renewed their unemployment pay claims.

Gunnoe's staff contacted 1,015 of the likeliest prospects for retraining. Of these, 640 came in for interviews and information, with 479 interested enough to take aptitude tests.

Gunnoe reports 52 per cent of the tested applicants did not show aptitude for the courses offered—in small appliance repair, stenography, nursing aid, automatic transmission repair, typing, route salesmanship and table waiting.

The employment office staff generally got one of three answers from the unemployed prospects contacted about the retraining program.

1. I'm just not interested.
2. I expect to be called back to work soon.
3. I'm too old to be starting all over again.

Air Force Recruiter Seeks College Women

Recruiter Sgt. James Lee said today the Air Force has an urgent need for young women with college degrees to fill positions in the U. S. and at some overseas locations.

The new female officer training school was established and designed to give qualified women college graduates or college women who are within 210 days of graduation, commissions in the Air Force as second lieutenants.

New requirements have opened positions of leadership for well-educated women in such fields as budget and accounting, science, finance, education, and several other specialized fields, he said.

The three-month co-educational course of intensive orientation and instruction takes place at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., outside of San Antonio. Upon graduation, the college graduate would be commissioned.

Further information may be obtained by calling Sgt. Lee at Ev. 7-2972. He is stationed at the City Hall.

Advertising is one of the best read elements in the daily newspaper. Surveys have shown that women rank advertising in newspapers first in popularity and men rank it second only to sports news.

Men's wear stores all over the nation did a $2.6 billion business in 1960. To attract as many customers as they can, they use daily newspapers as their primary advertising medium. Every year they invest 80-89 per cent of their promotion budgets in their local papers.

Advertising is one of the best read elements in the daily newspaper. Surveys have shown that women rank advertising in newspapers first in popularity and men rank it second only to sports news.

Men's wear stores all over the nation did a $2.6 billion business in 1960. To attract as many customers as they can, they use daily newspapers as their primary advertising medium. Every year they invest 80-89 per cent of their promotion budgets in their local papers.

It takes an average of about 45 seconds for the blood in a human to make the complete circuit throughout the body.

Multi-Billion-Dollar Suggestion

Knuckles now are being gnawed in Washington over satellite communication, reports The New York Times. The Kennedy administration is making up its mind whether to go along with the private enterprise system that has given it the world's best communications system, or to please the creeping socialists who would like to put politicians in control of satellite communications.

Among arguments being chewed over preparatory to making a decision on the question early in 1962 is the curious one that satellite communication is too big to be trusted to private enterprise.

This reflects the reasoning of the antitrust division of the Department of Justice — that any enterprise which becomes large through its own success is ripe for prosecution and persecution. This reasoning has run through the division under both Democratic and Republican administrations in recent years.

If it's allowed to influence the White House, via the route that keeps Attorney General Robert Kennedy and President John Kennedy in daily touch with each other's thoughts, taxpayers of the United States could be handed a multi-billion-dollar charge for putting politicians in control of something private enterprise is willing and able to tackle at no cost to government.

Private enterprise has the scientists and engineers to do the work on a satellite communications system. To them it would be just one more extension of the communications miracle they have been performing for the United States and the rest of the world. All that private enterprise wants is permission to put them to work.

It must have government sanction — and that gives the politicians a chance to stick in their oar. It isn't often that creeping socialists have such a chance to block private enterprise.

With a little luck, they could make sure the United States comes out second to the Soviet Union in satellite communications, the same as it has come out second under political mismanagement of rockets and missiles.

With a little boost from the White House and the Department of Justice they could carry on a multi-billion-dollar game of footsie with dedicated enemies of private enterprise, on the absurd excuse that satellite communication is too big an order for the kind of people who have given the United States the world's best communication — for profit, which means for customers' satisfaction instead of politicians' gratification.

Another 'First'

The district can take pride in any of the achievements of the atomic power plant at Shippingport, having "grown up" with the pioneer installation.

It was satisfying, therefore, to learn that it has become the first nuclear power electric generating unit in the United States to produce a billion kilowatt hours of electricity.

Throughout all developments at Shippingport run the words "peaceful use", a welcome relief from the fear of war that hangs over the world.

Scene: The Same As Before

Many of us embraced the idea as children that the end of one year and the beginning of another marked the end of one chain of events and the beginning of a new chain.

We came across this idea in the conversation of our elders. Without meaning to do so, we are foisting it on children in the generation that will follow ours.

It is possible in some cases that we ourselves never outgrew it; that we still think a new calendar marks a new beginning. Otherwise, why would we, make New Year resolutions?

Why would we waste time on year-end roundups, rehashing events that cannot be changed? And why would we make predictions that sound as if we thought the world would start fresh on Jan. 1?

When the thing has been done again and a new calendar has grown familiar — when we have learned to write 1962 as if it had been with us for months instead of days — it will be plain once more that nothing changed when the old year stopped and the new year began.

It is like a relay race in which the same baton is passed from hand to hand. Though the race is run in laps, the winning and the losing are cumulative. One runner may be faster or slower than another, but the total effect is as if all had run the same.

In this, the last week of 1961, the scene is familiar.

When the curtain falls, then rises again the scene will be the same — one year later. The play and the players will be the same, too, though pretending to be different.

Forget all resolutions recapitultions and forecasts. Wait a month, or two months. Or ignore them altogether. The end of a year is not the beginning or the end of anything except a calendar.

The Way To Help

Two boys at play demonstrated an alertness too often lacking when they came up with the first genuine clues in the $3,700 armed robbery Christmas eve at a home in Glenmoor.

After discovering buried items which have a bearing on the case, they had the presence of mind to notify the police rather than keep their finding to themselves.

Many an adult could learn a lesson in civic responsibility from the two youngsters who saw their duty and did it.

Quite often the police can help you if you help them.

The One Silver Lining

As expected, some criticism has marked the announcement by Columbiana County commissioners of a 15 per cent slash in operating funds for the various governmental departments.

Slashed budgets seldom prove popular in many quarters regardless of the imperative need which makes them necessary.

Rising expenses, inflation and increased services over the past years, along with failure of a proposed operating levy to gain voter approval in November, left the county without sufficient finances to maintain its previous levels of operation. A reduction in operations was necessary.

The fund cuts, in some cases, will mean loss of jobs, reduced efficiency, an increased work load and other unwelcome readjustments. More foreceful criticism can be expected from many quarters as the changes go into effect.

The problem is basic — one which every man and woman has encountered early in life, from the time he or she, mouth watering but pockets empty, pressed a nose against the window of a candy store. When the money isn't there, it isn't there.

Those prone to criticize the readjustment would do well to temper such criticism unless they can come up with the money needed to continue the present operation or can offer a more sensible distribution of funds.

Many phases of the reduction are lamentable to be sure. But there is one bright spot—an over-all more efficient operation may result as the result of the slashes, since in most cases it will be found necessary to cut the "fat" from the various payrolls. When any going concern is forced to pause and take stock of itself, it generally finds spots where the operation has become loose to the point of inefficiency and waste.

The thought that in general a more business-like county government may result is the one silver lining in the dark cloud of reduced operations which hangs over the courthouse at Lisbon.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Secretary of Agriculture, Orville Freeman went into a market and told housewives groceries were cheaper than at any time in years. His act was part political, part musical comedy and part propaganda for applesauce.

Orville must have something on the ball, since he escaped violence from the shoppers. They were remarkably docile in the face of "Cheer up, gals; the total bill as you check out is all imagination." This was probably due to fact women thought he was not secretary of agriculture but Allen Funt staging "Candid Camera" comedy program for TV.

Mr. Freeman showed rare courage, because all experience has shown that a housewife in search of groceries is very hard to stop with a few words on low cost of living as she trudges by the sirloins, chops and vegetables.

He somehow escaped wrath of shoppers as he cheerfully said "Things are cheaper all over, if you only stop to think,'" while they awaited total check. (Any mother of big family could have slugged him and won a discharge for justifiable homicide.)

Even as Mr. Freeman displayed a quart of milk and said it was more of a bargain than five or six years back there was not a single cry of "Sez you!" "Now I'll tell one" or "Who's your comedy writer?" The women listened placidly as he almost declared, "You should be ashamed to get so much food for so little money."

In one instance he displayed a bottle of olives to support an "olives for everybody" program, but nobody took the trouble to say "The old man, and the six kiddies don't like olives for dinner, even with gravy."

It baffles us that somewhere, among the shoppers there wasn't a housewife who yelled "Olives my eye! They don't go well in milk anyhow," and then snap "Why did I buy baloney this trip when I'm getting it for free from you?"

The tiny transistor, along with its cousin, the diode tube, is proving very big business with Americans these days. Only 10 years after their development, transistor and diode sales are now running $1.5 billion a year.

The reading public was provided with news of what's available in bookstores and on newsstands through the $26.3 million worth of national newspaper advertising placed in 1960 by book, magazine and newspaper publishers.

Some 1,563 U.S. companies advertising 3,706 products invested at least $25,000 in national newspaper advertising in 1960, with 103 of those spending over $1 million.

'A 'Peaceful' (?) Trio

Pointer

Police Protect Hoffa's Aide

By Victor Riesel

HOBOKEN, N.J. When one of Jimmy Hoffa's powerful national vice president's leaves a Teamsters' membership meeting under police escort, that's man bites dog news — in fact that's man bites - wholekennel - full type of headline stuff.

Victor Riesel

The vice president I refer to is a sensitive chap known in the business as Tony Pro — otherwise, Mr. Anthony Provenzano, chief of all the New Jersey Teamsters and president of a truckdrivers local No. 560, in which the rank and file has become restless.

In fact, so restless are they that they decided, many of them, early this month when Tony Pro was making high union policy in Miami Beach, to go to the next union meeting. In the past the attendance ran 40 or 50 of the hardy men devoted to Tony Pro and four or five known as the opposition.

The rest of the 12,000 members of this huge local did not bother. The meeting hall usually was small.

Usually you couldn't find a place to park. But this time there was to be discussion of changes in the by-laws which the anti-Hoffa leaders said would add to the union's democracy.

THE MEETING was called in a slightly bigger place, Union Club, 600 Hudson St., in this tough dockside city. It was scheduled for Dec. 14. And the rank and file, having heard so much about their national and state and local leadership, decided to turn out.

Some parked a mile away. Some walked. Some rented buses. When Tony opened the meeting there were more than 1,200 in the hall.

They had come to amend the by-laws. They wanted new statutes to say that the $19,500-a-year business agents should be elected instead of appointed by the local's executive board.

They wanted the rest of their officers chosen by a secret mail referendum of all the members instead of by a show of hands or voice vote in the open meeting hall.

They wanted secret ballots on votes to amend the by-laws which govern their union. You know, real quaint sentiments.

Then the chairman, Mr. Provenzano, gaveled the meeting to order. Pro looked squarely at the opposition and said they did not have the membership interest at heart with all this by-law change stuff. And that they were politically motivated.

THEN ONE of the opposition leaders, George Phillips, tried to put each amendment on the floor. The chairman ruled him out of order. The opposition man looked around at his brethren and "appealed the chair."

This presumptuous parliamentary suggestion that a Hoffa vice president was violating Robert's Rules was just too much. The chairman ruled the daring Brother Phillips out of order again and directed the sergeant at arms to throw him out.

The rank and file stirred. They hollered "let him speak." They grabbed the sergeant at arms and they outnumbered the muscle.

The police came. So did order. The gendarmes then withdrew to a netural corner. The meeting continued.

Then Mr. Pro said, aw fellows, we're all one big group, let's get together. The rank and file did just that. They booed—which did not disturb the neutrality of the police.

THEN PRO called for a vote against the amendments. He was out-roared. But he said he could not be sure and there was a better way to take a count. Those for me, line up here, those against, line up there. Then we'll see who is in favor and "who opposes me."

The rank and file hollered again —for a secret ballot vote. The chair rested on his authority. He banged the gavel, ruled the ayes (in his favor) had it.

Democracy did not exactly triumph that night. But at least the rank and file turned out to see for themselves what can happen to it and that it is their right to come out and yell for their rights, louder and louder.

Letters To The Editor

This letter is an attempt to clarify a misunderstanding that seems to exist as to the function of the Columbiana County Tuberculosis Control Clinic.

The clinic operates under the laws of the state of Ohio. An attorney general's opinion states that "A tuberculosis clinic may be defined as an institution or station under the control of the county commissioners where persons suspected of having or suffering from tuberculosis may come for examination, diagnosis and expert advice or treatment": 1942 OAG No. 5303.

No provision in this opinion is made for industrial or routine X-ray screening, nor X-rays solely as a qualification for employment; the use of the clinic for such purposes, in our opinion, is unlawful.

If one or more cases of tuberculosis are discovered in an industrial plant, it does not mean that the other employes in the plant are suspects or close contacts. It does mean, however, that such employes should have precautionary screening tests for tubercular infection. And this is strongly urged as a public health measure.

In this situation the clinic cannot offer X-ray screening. It does, however, offer Mantoux tuberculin testing upon request, in line with other tuberculosis clinics and hospitals. I read the article in Tuesday's Review about the man from East End who was jailed and fined on three charges.

This man was sent to the county jail to lay out his fine and charges. He is an out-of-town man. He has been in our town almost one year and if he is such a troublemaker why don't the law officials put him out of this town and make him go back to his own town? Why should us taxpayers have to pay taxes to feed such people?

My opinion is that there are too many of these kind of men living off us taxpayers. They know if they can do something to get in the county jail they will have a warm place to stay all winter and food to eat. That is why they do the things they do. They are too lazy to work, but expect the taxpayers to keep them.

This man is sentenced to stay in jail until April, where it is warm and he will have his meals served to him.

I say, "Send him back to his own state and make him stay out of our town."

Kennedy Tries To Sway Frondizi

President Kennedy, undaunted by his failure to convince either Khrushchev or Nehru of what are the true bases of moral law in the world today, has tried to move President Arturo Frondizi of Argentina away from his standoffishness on Cuba and to encourage him to join wholeheartedly in Latin-America cooperation against the menace of international communism.

David Lawrence

Senor Frondizi has just been making a world tour in which he has been emphasizing the need for industrialization of Latin America, which he thinks can form a new common market. But in an interview at New Orleans, the Argentine president revealed that he had not thought through the implications of what has been happening in Cuba.

He declared that social and economic problems had preceded the Castro regime and that Cuba had merely "chosen a road opposite to that which we have chosen."

The Argentine president said he was opposed to "intervention" in Cuba, though he didn't define what he included in that term.

A spokesman for a Cuban refugee group asked President Frondizi if his policy of nonintervention against Cuban communism as not in conflict with his belief as a Catholic. Senor Frondizi replied that part of his belief was that he would not try to "enforce his philosophy on others."

What happens, however, when others force their philosophy on Argentina, as has been tried recently inside that country? Does the head of the government in Buenos Aires adopt a nonresistant attitude and offer no defense?

The word "nonintervention" can be interpreted to mean a hands-off attitude even when the lives and property of Argentine citizens resident in Cuba are threatened.

There is an unfortunate tendency today to downgrade moral law because it is expedient to do so. The philosophy that "the end justifies the means" is extolled by Nehru of India and Sukarno of Indonesia and, of course, by the rapacious regime in Moscow.

SHOULD THIS be ignore by the free world President Frondizi might well study a recent pronouncement by the Catholic bishops of America on the subject of moral law. They said in part:

"In today's world, our most obvious duty is to speak out, to make open profession of religious beliefs and moral convictions, to reaffirm morality as the foundation of our nation's past greatness and of its future aspirations. . . .

"Because we have so often faltered in our course, and because the communist nations have profited by our mistakes to inspire false ideals and to awaken glittering but barren hopes, we must not be discouraged, imagining that our hour of opportunity has passed.

"It has not passed. The hour of greatest opportunity is striking now, as the forces of freedom and of tyranny gird for a decision. America's strength, bestowed by Divine Providence, has been given for this hour—that freedom may not fail.

"The exercise of our national strength, in order to achieve its true purpose, must be guided by those principles on which our strength was built. We must apply those principles in both national and international affairs. We shall be worthy of world leadership only if we are willing to pledge 'our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor' in behalf of the right."

THIS DOESN'T sound like pacifism or appeasement or nonresistance. It is a voice of courage in a distraught world.

The Latin - American nations have been protected for nearly a century and a half by the power of the United States, which, through the Monroe Doctrine, has unselfishly defended the countries of this hemisphere against attempts at conquest by European powers.

Today this responsibility has been transferred by formal resolution to the Organization of American States, whose council is to meet soon to decide what shall be done about Cuba.

The paramount question is whether the lives and property of foreign citizens are to be respected or destroyed.

President Frondizi cannot hope in the future to woo private capital from the United States, nor can he expect that the taxpayers of this country will indefinitely finance "alliance for progress" programs amounting to nearly $10 billion if there is no law except that of the jungle—that stealing is a sovereign right and that compensation for things stolen need not be made.

It is to be hoped that the Organization of American States—which is composed almost entirely of what are often referred to as Catholic countries—will give heed to the statesmanlike declarations of the catholic bishops of America and adopt a course that makes moral law the true test of international policy.

Dear Nephew: Aside from telling you what you already know, that we counted this Christmas at your house to be the best ever, there's nothing to say in this letter except about happy new year.

It won't be free from trouble. That's not what happiness is anyway, unless you're feeble-minded. True happiness is knowing how to cope with trouble.

When we wish you happy new year, understand we're not wishing you to be feeble-minded, even though you have a head start. We're wishing you to have enough spunk and spirit to keep your sanity.

The pressure, according to our pressure gauge, is building up.

There are going to be more things that don't make sense in the new year than there were in the old one. If you shook your head in wonderment 100 times in 1961, batted your eyes and wondered who was crazy, you can count on doing it 200 times in 1962.

Take our word for it, as what you newspaper characters refer to as "seasoned observers." It's going to be a crazy year. That Khrushchev has taken it on himself to be our chief gadfly and is going to keep on buzzing. He has the advantage of flexibility. He can do anything he takes it into his head to do. But we will be stuck in the mud with our principles.

Those crazy people hell-bent on making their own political mistakes are going to be heller-bent than ever. I am referring to the loonies who think it would be more fun to louse up their own government than to have it loused up for them by outsiders. We were loonies once ourselves. Funny thing, isn't it, that you'd think colonialism was all beer and skittles if you didn't know better? They're having trouble in the Congo, but now they're having mostly their trouble, not Belgium's.

Before the end of 1961 a union in New York City was asking for a 20-hour week and promising to keep its $4.40-an-hour members too busy to go moonlighting. By the end of 1962, someone will talk about a 10-hour week, consisting of five two-hour days. That would be about my speed.

There will be the same triumphs of the unworthy. The good will die young and the misfits will live forever. Juveniles will still try to equal the antics their elders thought were cute when they did them a generation before.

Taxes will continue to be a mish-mash of inequitable confiscation. Virtue will not be its own reward. Figures will lie and liars will figure. Politicians will insult our intelligence. We'll worry about Berlin. There will be riots in all important cities. Bombs will be planted in churches. Irreconcilables will pit us all against one another. Hate-mongers will be tireless. It's going to be a tough year.

Cling fast to everything that makes sense. That's our advice and our wish.

Thanks again for the lovely Christmas presents, and I'd wondered for years why they didn't put vitamins in the stuff. Thanks for thinking of it.

And happy new year to you and yours, wherever they will be and whatever trouble they'll be coping with. May they never let the so-and-sos get them down! Look how bravely we are bearing up, termites, arthritis, loss of memory and all.

Multi-Billion-Dollar Suggestion

Knuckles now are being gnawed in Washington over satellite communication, reports The New York Times. The Kennedy administration is making up its mind whether to go along with the private enterprise system that has given it the world's best communications system, or to please the creeping socialists who would like to put politicians in control of satellite communications.

Among arguments being chewed over preparatory to making a decision on the question early in 1962 is the curious one that satellite communication is too big to be trusted to private enterprise.

This reflects the reasoning of the antitrust division of the Department of Justice — that any enterprise which becomes large through its own success is ripe for prosecution and persecution. This reasoning has run through the division under both Democratic and Republican administrations in recent years.

If it's allowed to influence the White House, via the route that keeps Attorney General Robert Kennedy and President John Kennedy in daily touch with each other's thoughts, taxpayers of the United States could be handed a multi-billion-dollar charge for putting politicians in control of something private enterprise is willing and able to tackle at no cost to government.

Private enterprise has the scientists and engineers to do the work on a satellite communications system. To them it would be just one more extension of the communications miracle they have been performing for the United States and the rest of the world. All that private enterprise wants is permission to put them to work.

It must have government sanction — and that gives the politicians a chance to stick in their oar. It isn't often that creeping socialists have such a chance to block private enterprise.

With a little luck, they could make sure the United States comes out second to the Soviet Union in satellite communications, the same as it has come out second under political mismanagement of rockets and missiles.

With a little boost from the White House and the Department of Justice they could carry on a multi-billion-dollar game of footsie with dedicated enemies of private enterprise, on the absurd excuse that satellite communication is too big an order for the kind of people who have given the United States the world's best communication — for profit, which means for customers' satisfaction instead of politicians' gratification.

Another 'First'

The district can take pride in any of the achievements of the atomic power plant at Shippingport, having "grown up" with the pioneer installation.

It was satisfying, therefore, to learn that it has become the first nuclear power electric generating unit in the United States to produce a billion kilowatt hours of electricity.

Throughout all developments at Shippingport run the words "peaceful use", a welcome relief from the fear of war that hangs over the world.

Scene: The Same As Before

Many of us embraced the idea as children that the end of one year and the beginning of another marked the end of one chain of events and the beginning of a new chain.

We came across this idea in the conversation of our elders. Without meaning to do so, we are foisting it on children in the generation that will follow ours.

It is possible in some cases that we ourselves never outgrew it; that we still think a new calendar marks a new beginning. Otherwise, why would we, make New Year resolutions?

Why would we waste time on year-end roundups, rehashing events that cannot be changed? And why would we make predictions that sound as if we thought the world would start fresh on Jan. 1?

When the thing has been done again and a new calendar has grown familiar — when we have learned to write 1962 as if it had been with us for months instead of days — it will be plain once more that nothing changed when the old year stopped and the new year began.

It is like a relay race in which the same baton is passed from hand to hand. Though the race is run in laps, the winning and the losing are cumulative. One runner may be faster or slower than another, but the total effect is as if all had run the same.

In this, the last week of 1961, the scene is familiar.

When the curtain falls, then rises again the scene will be the same — one year later. The play and the players will be the same, too, though pretending to be different.

Forget all resolutions, recapitultions and forecasts. Wait a month, or two months. Or ignore them altogether. The end of a year is not the beginning or the end of anything except a calendar.

The Way To Help

Two boys at play demonstrated an alertness too often lacking when they came up with the first genuine clues in the $3,700 armed robbery Christmas eve at a home in Glenmoor.

After discovering buried items which have a bearing on the case, they had the presence of mind to notify the police rather than keep their finding to themselves.

Many an adult could learn a lesson in civic responsibility from the two youngsters who saw their duty and did it.

Quite often the police can help you if you help them.

The One Silver Lining

As expected, some criticism has marked the announcement by Columbiana County commissioners of a 15 per cent slash in operating funds for the various governmental departments.

Slashed budgets seldom prove popular in many quarters regardless of the imperative need which makes them necessary.

Rising expenses, inflation and increased services over the past years, along with failure of a proposed operating levy to gain voter approval in November, left the county without sufficient finances to maintain its previous levels of operation. A reduction in operations was necessary.

The fund cuts, in some cases, will mean loss of jobs, reduced efficiency, an increased work load and other unwelcome readjustments. More foreceful criticism can be expected from many quarters as the changes go into effect.

The problem is basic — one which every man and woman has encountered early in life, from the time he or she, mouth watering but pockets empty, pressed a nose against the window of a candy store. When the money isn't there, it isn't there.

Those prone to criticize the readjustment would do well to temper such criticism unless they can come up with the money needed to continue the present operation or can offer a more sensible distribution of funds.

Many phases of the reduction are lamentable to be sure. But there is one bright spot—an over-all more efficient operation may result as the result of the slashes, since in most cases it will be found necessary to cut the "fat" from the various payrolls. When any going concern is forced to pause and take stock of itself, it generally finds spots where the operation has become loose to the point of inefficiency and waste.

The thought that in general a more business-like county government may result is the one silver lining in the dark cloud of reduced operations which hangs over the courthouse at Lisbon.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Secretary of Agriculture, Orville Freeman went into a market and told housewives groceries were cheaper than at any time in years. His act was part political, part musical comedy and part propaganda for applesauce.

Orville must have something on the ball, since he escaped violence from the shoppers. They were remarkably docile in the face of "Cheer up, gals; the total bill as you check out is all imagination." This was probably due to fact women thought he was not secretary of agriculture but Allen Funt staging "Candid Camera" comedy program for TV.

Mr. Freeman showed rare courage, because all experience has shown that a housewife in search of groceries is very hard to stop with a few words on low cost of living as she trudges by the sirloins, chops and vegetables.

He somehow escaped wrath of shoppers as he cheerfully said "Things are cheaper all over, if you only stop to think," while they awaited total check. (Any mother of big family could have slugged him and won a discharge for justifiable homicide.)

Even as Mr. Freeman displayed a quart of milk and said it was more of a bargain than five or six years back there was not a single cry of "Sez you!" "Now I'll tell one" or "Who's your comedy writer?" The women listened placidly as he almost declared, "You should be ashamed to get so much food for so little money."

In one instance he displayed a bottle of olives to support an "olives for everybody" program, but nobody took the trouble to say "The old man, and the six kiddies don't like olives for dinner, even with gravy."

It baffles us that somewhere, among the shoppers there wasn't a housewife who yelled "Olives my eye! They don't go well in milk anyhow," and then snap "Why did I buy baloney this trip when I'm getting it for free from you?"

The tiny transistor, along with its cousin, the diode tube, is proving very big business with Americans these days. Only 10 years after their development, transistor and diode sales are now running $1.5 billion a year.

Police Protect Hoffa's Aide

By Victor Riesel

HOBOKEN, N.J.

When one of Jimmy Hoffa's powerful national vice president's leaves a Teamsters' membership meeting under police escort, that's man bites dog news — in fact that's man bites - wholekennel - full type of headline stuff.

Victor Riesel

The vice president I refer to is a sensitive chap known in the business as Tony Pro — otherwise, Mr. Anthony Provenzano, chief of all the New Jersey Teamsters and president of a truckdrivers local No. 560, in which the rank and file has become restless.

In fact, so restless are they that they decided, many of them, early this month when Tony Pro was making high union policy in Miami Beach, to go to the next union meeting. In the past the attendance ran 40 or 50 of the hardy men devoted to Tony Pro and four or five known as the opposition.

The rest of the 12,000 members of this huge local did not bother. The meeting hall usually was small.

Usually you couldn't find a place to park. But this time there was to be discussion of changes in the by-laws which the anti-Hoffa leaders said would add to the union's democracy.

THE MEETING was called in a slightly bigger place, Union Club, 600 Hudson St., in this tough dockside city. It was scheduled for Dec. 14. And the rank and file, having heard so much about their national and state and local leadership, decided to turn out.

Some parked a mile away. Some walked. Some rented buses. When Tony opened the meeting there were more than 1,200 in the hall.

They had come to amend the by-laws. They wanted new statutes to say that the $19,500-a-year business agents should be elected instead of appointed by the local's executive board.

They wanted the rest of their officers chosen by a secret mail referendum of all the members instead of by a show of hands or voice vote in the open meeting hall.

They wanted secret ballots on votes to amend the by-laws which govern their union. You know, real quaint sentiments.

Then the chairman, Mr. Provenzano, gaveled the meeting to order. Pro looked squarely at the opposition and said they did not have the membership interest at heart with all this by-law change stuff. And that they were politically motivated.

THEN ONE of the opposition leaders, George Phillips, tried to put each amendment on the floor. The chairman ruled him out of order. The opposition man looked around at his brethren and "appealed the chair."

This presumptuous parliamentary suggestion that a Hoffa vice president was violating Robert's Rules was just too much. The chairman ruled the daring Brother Phillips out of order again and directed the sergeant at arms to throw him out.

The rank and file stirred. They hollered "let him speak." They grabbed the sergeant at arms and they outnumbered the muscle.

The police came. So did order. The gendarmes then withdrew to a netural corner. The meeting contunued.

Then Mr. Pro said, aw fellows, we're all one big group, let's get together. The rank and file did just that. They booed—which did not disturb the neutrality of the police.

THEN PRO called for a vote against the amendments. He was out-roared. But he said he could not be sure and there was a better way to take a count. Those for me, line up here, those against, line up there. Then we'll see who is in favor and "who opposes me."

The rank and file hollered again —for a secret ballot vote. The chair rested on his authority. He banged the gavel, ruled the ayes (in his favor) had it.

The amendments were defeated. The members booed. Tony Pro left surrounded by the gendarmerie.

Democracy did not exactly triumph that night. But at least the rank and file turned out to see for themselves what can happen to it and that it is their right to come out and yell for their rights, louder and louder.

Letters To The Editor

This letter is an attempt to clarify a misunderstanding that seems to exist as to the function of the Columbiana County Tuberculosis Control Clinic.

The clinic operates under the laws of the state of Ohio. An attorney general's opinion states that "A tuberculosis clinic may be defined as an institution or station under the control of the county commissioners where persons suspected of having or suffering from tuberculosis may come for examination, diagnosis and expert advice or treatment": 1942 OAG No. 5303.

No provision in this opinion is made for industrial or routine X-ray screening, nor X-rays solely as a qualification for employment; the use of the clinic for such purposes, in our opinion, is unlawful.

If one or more cases of tuberculosis are discovered in an industrial plant, it does not mean that the other employes in the plant are suspects or close contacts. It does mean, however, that such employes should have precautionary screening tests for tubercular infection. And this is strongly urged as a public health measure.

In this situation the clinic cannot offer X-ray screening. It does, however, offer Mantoux tuberculin testing upon request, in line with other tuberculosis clinics and hospitals. If the person reacts to the test he is considered a suspect and will be given a chest X-ray. If he does not react, it indicates that he is free of tubercular infection and needs no X-ray at this time.

The clinic is now under the supervision of the Columbiana County Board of Health which has adopted policies for its operation in line with the above explanation.

There are going to be more things that don't make sense in the new year than there were in the old one. If you shook your head in wonderment 100 times in 1961, batted your eyes and wondered who was crazy, you can count on doing it 200 times in 1962.

Take our word for it, as what you newspaper characters refer to as "seasoned observers." It's going to be a crazy year. That Khrushchev has taken it on himself to be our chief gadfly and is going to keep on buzzing. He has the advantage of flexibility. He can do anything he takes it into his head to do. But we will be stuck in the mud with our principles.

Those crazy people hell-bent on making their own political mistakes are going to be heller-bent than ever. I am referring to the loonies who think it would be more fun to louse up their own government than to have it loused up for them by outsiders. We were loonies once ourselves. Funny thing, isn't it, that you'd think colonialism was all beer and skittles if you didn't know better? They're having trouble in the Congo, but now they're having mostly their trouble, not Belgium's.

Before the end of 1961 a union in New York City was asking for a 20-hour week and promising to keep its $4.40-an-hour members too busy to go moonlighting. By the end of 1962, someone will talk about a 10-hour week, consisting of five two-hour days. That would be about my speed.

There will be the same triumphs of the unworthy. The good will die young and the misfits will live forever. Juveniles will still try to equal the antics their elders thought were cute when they did them a generation before.

Taxes will continue to be a mish-mash of inequitable confiscation. Virtue will not be its own reward. Figures will lie and liars will figure. Politicians will insult our intelligence. We'll worry about Berlin. There will be riots in all important cities. Bombs will be planted in churches. Irreconcilables will pit us all against one another. Hate-mongers will be tireless. It's going to be a tough year.

Cling fast to everything that makes sense. That's our advice and our wish.

Thanks again for the lovely Christmas presents, and I'd wondered for years why they didn't put vitamins in the stuff. Thanks for thinking of it.

And happy new year to you and yours, wherever they will be and whatever trouble they'll be coping with. May they never let the so-and-sos get them down! Look how bravely we are bearing up, termites, arthritis, loss of memory and all.

Empire State Building Sold

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—The Empire State Building, the world's tallest structure was sold Wednesday for $65 million to the Prudential Insurance Co. of America.

Prudential then granted control of the 102-story New York skyscraper to Empire State Building Associates, an investment syndicate headed by Lawrence A. Wien, a New York lawyer and real estate operator.

Prudential paid $29 million to the seller, Henry Crown of Chicago, principal stockholder of the Empire State Building Corp.

Wien's syndicate paid $36 million to Crown, completing one of the most complex real estate deals in history.

In 1951, Prudential paid $17 million for the land on which the building stands.

Wien's 114-year leasehold gives him the right to rent office space and to control the operation of the observation roof and television tower. The Empire State, the unofficial symbol of New York City, grosses about $14 million a year income.

The sale was made at Prudential's headquarters in Newark.

2 Of Teamsters Locals Get Order For Books Probe

DETROIT (AP) — Two Teamsters Union locals, including Teamsters President James R. Hoffa's home Local 299, are under orders to open their records to federal investigators starting Jan. 3.

An order that government investigators be given full access to records of Local 299 and Local 614 at Pontiac, Mich., was signed Wednesday by U.S. Dist. Judge Thomas P. Thornton.

Thornton specified, however, that inspection would be allowed only on records from Jan. 1, 1959 to Dec. 27, 1961. The order specified that inspectors be given adequate quarters at both locals to examine the records "without interference from the presence of" union members.

The order apparently ended an 11-month battle by the Teamsters against new authority for the secretary of labor to inspect union reports under the Landrum-Griffin Act.

Boy Wasn't 'Chicken', He's Struck By Train

CLEVELAND (AP) — A group of teenagers here have found a new way of playing "chicken." Instead of hurtling at each other in cars, they stand in the path of railroad trains. The first one to jump clear is "chicken."

Craig Boyd, 16, of suburban Lakewood wasn't going to be "chicken" Wednesday night. As a result, he suffered a broken leg when a train struck him before he could jump clear.

Two friends were "chicken." They got out of the way in time.

Police said Boyd, a 14-year-old girl and a 13-year-old boy would be charged with juvenile delinquency.

Fat U.S. Airmen At 2 Bases Given Slim Down Order

LONDON (AP)—Fat American airmen at two U.S. air bases in Britain have been ordered to slim down.

The order has gone out to more than 100 flight crews and about 2,000 ground crewmen to reduce to 10 pounds below the maximum permitted weight.

"If you stick to the figures in the book and take a man off a diet as soon as he reaches the permitted maximum, he'll be five pounds overweight again in a couple of weeks," said Lt. Col. James Asher, flight surgeon at Bentwaters Base in Suffolk.

Asher said the reducing drive was a precaution against coronary heart disease.

"We've had one man 28 suffering from the disease and he was overweight," the doctor explained.

The average day's menu at the bases serves a man about 3,000 calories, but "where necessary we will put men on a diet which will cut the calorie intake by half," Asher said. As a start, the fatties have been told to cut out bread, potatoes, candy and liquor.

2 Killed, 2 Injured In Headon Collision

CINCINNATI (AP) — Two persons were killed and two were injured seriously early today in a head-on collission of two automobiles on Interstate 75 near the General Electric plant in suburban Evendale.

The dead were Robert H. Davis, 53, of Hamilton and Mrs. Dorothy Flynn of Springdale.

Injured were Mrs. Flynn's husband, Dennis, 45, and their son, Terry, 17.

Sgt. Al Shelton of the Evendale police said Davis was driving south on the northbound lane of the divided highway. The collision threw the Flynn car into the side of a tractor-trailer driven by Wilbur Lee Herrin Jr., 21, of Hartford City, Ind. Herrin was not hurt.

Davis' Hamilton address was 978 Columbia Road.

Damage was estimated at $7,000 to the egg cargo and $1,000 to the trailer.

State highway department workers from Medina cleared the mess.

Hunter Tells How He, Pal Nearly Froze To Death

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—Richard F. Lantsberry said he "really got concerned that we would freeze to death" at one point while he and another hunter lay helpless in the numbing cold during two days and nights in the Pennsylvania hills.

Lantsberry's fears might have been realized had two other hunters not appeared Dec. 9 outside the shelter where Lantsberry and Robert P. Wise, 21, of Grafton were lying frozen rigid.

Recovering in Elyria Memorial Hospital, Lantsberry, 25, of Elyria was able to talk about the ordeal Wednesday. He and Wise were unconscious for a time after being taken to Renovo (Pa.) Hospital Dec. 9, and, after they thawed out, they were incoherent and suffered from hallucinations.

Lantsberry said he and Wise left here Dec. 1 for the hills near Renovo, traveling in a pickup truck on the back of which was built a cabin-like shelter. They spent two days hunting deer without any luck, and the night of Dec. 6 they made plans to return home the next day.

They turned up the oil heater, which was vented, Lantsberry said, opened one window a crack and went to sleep.

The next morning he awoke groggy and unable to get up. He couldn't awaken Wise. "I would wake up and fall asleep," said Lantsberry, who was unable to explain the cause of the grogginess. He said the oil heater had been used on other hunting trips without trouble from fumes.

He crawled to the oil heater once in an effort to relight it, but "My hands were too frozen. I couldn't get it lit," he recalled.

It was the night of Dec. 8, a Friday night, that he became "concerned that we would freeze to death."

Temperatures hovered near zero. Wise remained unconscious, and Lantsberry was conscious only part of the time. He was unable to reach food.

The next morning (Dec. 9) Lantsberry heard a car pull up. He made a great effort, tumbled toward the door and outside and was seen by two Pennsylvania hunters, who rushed the frozen men to Renovo.

The two appeared to be in such bad condition that clergymen administered last rites. A doctor at Renovo Hospital said they were rigid and looked like frozen turkeys. But the hospital staff went to work, and relays of nurses gradually thawed the two out, applying compresses, first cold then warm.

Then there were high fevers, and it was feared major amputations might be required. Amputations actually were limited to the toes, with each man losing a part or all of every toe. This is not expected to interfere with their returning to work within a few weeks. They were transferred here last week.

Ohio's Chief Justice To Seek Sixth Term

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt has set his sights on a sixth term on the Ohio Supreme Court, a post he has held since 1933.

The 73-year-old Lakewood jurist officially announced his candidacy for re-election Wednesday. The Democrat said he had been encouraged to run for another six-year term by the bench and bar of the state and already had been endorsed by the Cleveland Bar Association.

Supreme Court Judge Kingsley A. Taft of Columbus is the only Republican candidate for nomination for chief justice.

Council Ends Service With Bill On Funds

The 1960-61 City Council bowed out of office Wednesday night after a special meeting in which it enacted an ordinance providing for yearend fund transfers totaling $3,010 and set up a new prohibited parking zone in the East End business district.

The terms of the seven councilmen and their president end officially at midnight Sunday, but last night marked their last session of the biennium.

One major item accounted for the bulk of the routine fund transfers — $2,100 which was shifted within the garbage department from payrolls of removal employes to cover wages of disposal employes.

In another inter-departmental transfer, $200 was set up for police overtime pay and another $200 was provided for maintenance of police equipment.

Other items listed in the last-minute appropriation amendment are:

Fire department equipment maintenance, $36; "Meter Maid" wages, $60; school crossing guard wages, $103; parking meter repairman's overtime, $100; water works fund, $116, and sewer revenue fund, $95.

A new "no parking" zone was established on the north side of Locust St. from Maple St. to 1st Ave., a distance of a little over a block. Locust St. runs parallel with Pennsylvania Ave., intersecting Mulberry St. at right angles.

Councilmen said the present system, which allows parking on both sides of the street, impedes the free flow of traffic and makes it difficult for vehicles to pass if they meet while traveling in opposite directions.

Councilman Donald Hancock, president pro tem, conducted the session in the absence of President Charles N. Edwards. The president was excused because he is acting mayor during the absence of Mayor Bert H. Goodballet. Councilman Clifford Cooper also was excused.

The session also marked the end of the term for Councilmen John Kelly, Donald Smith, Robert Laughlin, Norman Bucher and John Melvin. All are Democrats.

The meeting opened with invocation by Owen D. Kountz, clerk. The final session was held without an audience. Aside from the councilmen, only Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper and Safety - Service Director Robert Owen were present.

Cooper praised the retiring members and said: "I hope you will run for office again; the city needs men like you."

"You distinguished yourselves, at least in the eyes of some citizens, by realizing the needs of the city and acting to meet those needs," Cooper said. "You showed a lot of courage in the face of the realization that you might not be re-elected."

The point made by highway traffic safety officials about keeping one's eyes on the highway was brought home emphatically to a Pennsylvania trucker Wednesday night at 11:30.

The Lisbon State Highway Patrol said a tractor-trailer rig driven by Roger L. Quarry, 29, of Imler, Pa., was wrecked on Route 14 after Quarry took his eyes off the road for a just a few seconds.

Quarry told patrolmen he glanced down to check the speedometer and a mileage form after crossing from Pennsylvania into Ohio. He said before he realized what was happening, the rig had swerved off the highway, ripped out eight guardrail posts and overturned on its side.

Quarry was not hurt although the rig was heavily damaged, officers said.

Restaurant Owners Reminded On License

LISBON — Columbiana County Sanitarian Harry Stockdale reminded restaurant owners they have but two more days to obtain their license for 1962.

Applications were mailed to 192 restaurant operators Dec. 1 and 82 have responded.

This is approximately half of the full-time restaurants in the county. Several of the 192 eating places are seasonal and do not get their licenses until they open in the spring.

The license fee is based on seating capacity but is not less than $15 in any case.

Violation of the license statute subjects the owner to a fine of $10 per day for each day in violation, Stockdale warned.

helped bring Tshombe and Adoula together at Kitona last week.

Tshombe said in his secessionist capital that the delegates were sent to bargain for a change in the Congo provisional constitution, which provides for a strong central government, and not to sit in the National Parliament.

"Our Katanga constitution is the basis of the coming Leopoldville talks," Tshombe declared. "It foresees integration in a federation or a confederation of the Congo. We still insist on a confederation."

This indicated Tshombe had sent the delegation in compliance with Article 5 of the Kitona agreement, in which he agreed "to the participation of representatives of the province of Katanga in a government commission to prepare a new constitution."

Adoula's government, however, expected the Katanga representatives in fulfillment of Article 6 of the agreement, in which Tshombe agreed "to take all measures to permit senators and deputies of Katanga Province to exercise the national functions (that is, participate in the National Parliament)."

The central government said in a communique it hopes the Katangan deputies "will participate actively in the parliamentary debates and that they will accomplish their duty until the close of the session."

Remodeling Job To Cost $17,000

A $17,000 remodeling project is nearing completion in a three-story brick business building at E. 6th and Walnut Sts. owned by Phil A. Miraglata of St. Clair Ave. Ext.

In the major phase of the work, four apartments of three rooms and bath each will be built in the second floor of the structure, which previously was one large room. Each apartment will have a tile bath and kitchen and electric heat, Miraglata said.

The job also includes remodeling of the front of the ground-floor storeroom, occupied by the State Liquor Store. The Liquor Control Department recently signed a new three-year lease with Miraglata for use of the room.

The section of the exterior underneath the large plate glass windows will be replaced and a new door will be installed, Miraglata said. Paul Brown of Calcutta is the contractor.

can leaders after a six-hour meeting at which they began planning the 1962 campaign.

The governor, with the other GOP leaders surrounding him in his office, told reporters that he and other Republicans would run next year on the party's record and program of the last three years.

He said this record included economic expansion that produced more jobs, record public works construction and higher state aid to education.

Republican State Chairman L. Judson Morhouse predicted Rockefeller would win by a "substantially better plurality" than his 573,000-vote edge of 1958. He defeated Democrat Averell Harriman 3,126,929 million votes to 2,553,895.

a news conference Wednesday he agrees with House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana that there is a revival of conservatism which could affect Democratic control of Congress in next year's elections.

Halleck previously had said a "wave of conservatism apparent throughout the country" might sweep the GOP into control of the House.

Dirksen was a little more cautious in his political estimates.

But he agreed with Halleck's contention that younger people are becoming more interested in Republican policies than they have in the recent past.

Asked why this was, he replied: "The young people have been watching all of these spending programs and they are getting concerned about the debts they are going to have to pay. There is an amazing interest among them in politics."

Dirksen made it clear that Republicans will bear down in the new session on efforts to balance the budget. He said he would be ready to vote for higher taxes if that is necessary to bring about a balance. But he added that Republicans will want to concentrate first on cutting non-essential spending.

In a lengthy discussion of Kennedy's projected request for broad authority to negotiate tariff reductions, Dirksen indicated he would support only a one-year trial program. He left little doubt he thinks Republicans will insist on inserting escape clauses to protect threatened industries.

Daley-Bush Nuptials Held At New Lebanon Church

LISBON — At a candlelight ceremony Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss Beverly Ann Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Bush of R.D., became the bride of Robert Charles Daley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Daley of Main St., Salineville.

The open church wedding was held in New Lebanon United Presbyterian Church near Millport with the Rev. Frank Hare, pastor, officiating at the double-ring service.

He was assisted by the Rev. James McCulian, pastor of Calvary United Presbyterian Church of Salineville.

They exchanged vows before an altar banked with ferns, pine boughs and bouquets of white mums with two seven-branch candelabra.

Robert W. Daley of Salineville, grandfather of the bridegroom, was organist for nuptial music and Mrs. Homer Strabley of Minerva, cousin of the bridegroom, was soloist. Her numbers were "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a ballerina-length gown of white satin fashioned with fitted bodice, scoop neckline and long, pointed sleeves.

Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held in place with a crown of white satin roses. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations, chrysanthemums and pompons with cascading satin wedding streamers tied in lovers knots. She observed the familiar traditions.

The maid of honor — the bride's only attendant — was Miss Elane Foley of Pittsburgh, a childhood friend. She wore a royal blue taffeta gown with bouffant ballerina skirt accented with a matching Dior bow headpiece with veil. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Jay Carter Jr. of Salineville was best man and Edward and Carl Thompson, also of Salineville and cousins of the bridegroom, were ushers.

The bride's mother chose a powder-blue embroidered taffeta suit dress with black accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a pale blue embossed faille dress with beige accessories. Their corsages were of pink carnations.

A reception for some 200 followed in the social room. The bride's table was laid in white and centered with a wedding cake of three tiers separated with pillars and decorated with pink roses, green leaves and a top of a flowered heart enclosing a tiny bridal pair. Poinsettia attached to candles in poinsettia holders reflected the season's motif in the church decorations.

Mrs. Clyde Ferguson and Mrs. Earl Hamilton of Gavers, Mrs. Edgar Conn and Mrs. Floyd Pierce of R.D. and Mrs. Wilbur McKarns of Hanoverton served the guests who were registered from Pittsburgh, Cleveland, East Liverpool, Minerva, Salineville and Lisbon.

Rehearsal was held Tuesday evening at the church, followed by a rehearsal party given by the bridegroom's parents. Attendants were remembered with gifts.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a boy 11 years of age. Something is bothering me. It's about my mother. She looks fat when she is cleaning the house in her old bathrobe. You might even say she looks lumpy.

The very same night when she dresses up in her good clothes she looks thin. Can stockings and shoes and underwear make so much difference in a lady's shape? I asked her about this and she gave me a dirty look—but she did say underwear makes the difference.

Now, Ann Landers, I know very well that underwear can't make the lumps go to—BOB.

Dear Bob: The lumps don't actually go any place. They are just rearranged.

Elastic can do marvelous things! (And I think you ask too many questions, too!)

Mutual Assistance

Dear Ann: I was very much interested in that letter from the salesman in the men's clothing store. He said 85 per cent of the nation's males are morons who can't buy a suit of clothes or a topcoat without the advice of a woman—usually the wife.

You said it was a sure bet that when a woman comes into a clothing store with a man SHE brought him. You added, "It's a great compliment to a man when his wife is willing to take the time to help him select clothes."

Now, Ann, be honest. Do YOU go with your husband to help him select clothes? How about an answer in the column?—L. A. DOUBTER.

Dear Doubter: You can bet your seven-button vest I do, Buster. If I didn't, he'd probably still be wearing his Glen Urquhart plaid with the by-swing back.

But then, as busy as HE is, he always takes the time to come with me to select hats. No, he doesn't feel uncomfortable in a women's millinery department. It's where I met him!

Overgenerous Gifts

Dear Ann: I'm a business executive who never dreamed I'd wind up writing to you. The Christmas gift scourge is what prompts me to put pen in hand. I cannot dictate this letter and you'll soon understand why.

The view I'm about to express is not exclusively my own. I've discussed this with other executives and have learned that many feel as I do. I refer to secretaries who give costly gifts to the boss.

My own secretary is a fine woman. She is having financial difficulties and I happen to know she is barely getting by. For the past three years she has spent far too much money on Christmas gifts for me. I just got another one last Friday.

Is there any way I can prevent this from happening next year without hurting her feelings?—DILLY.

Dear Dilly: Yes. Tell her that you have been deeply touched by her demonstrations of generosity in the past but from now on you will not accept a gift which costs more than $2.

Explain that a small trinket will express her thoughtfulness adequately, and this is what counts.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Boy In Good Condition With Shotgun Wound

LISBON — Irvin E. Vannewkirk III, 14-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Vannewkirk of Lisbon R. D. 3, is reported in fairly good condition at Salem City Hospital with a shot gun wound in the leg.

The sheriff's office said the accident occurred Saturday afternoon at the Vannewkirk farm on Roller Coast Rd. southeast of Lisbon.

The boy told authorities he and his brother, John, 13, were hauling water with a farm tractor and trailer and had a loaded and cocked 12-guage shotgun lying on the tractor. The gun jostled off and discharged as it hit the ground. The blast struck Irwin in the calf of the right leg.

An ambulance took him to a Lisbon physician, then on to Salem for surgery. Irvin is an eighth grader at Beaver Local School.

McElroy Gives Ruling About Appointments

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Major gubernatorial appointments last month should be sent to the next session of the Ohio Senate for confirmation, Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy ruled today.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle requested the opinion following the Nov. 7 approval by voters of a constitutional amendment requiring Senate confirmation of major appointments.

The change in the constitution was proposed after an Ohio Supreme Court decision showed that senators lacked the "advice and consent" authority they always thought they held over appointments.

DiSalle asked McElroy to rule specifically on appointments between the Nov. 7 approval of the constitutional change and Nov. 21, the final date of a reconvened legislative session opened Nov. 14. The official canvass of the vote approving the constitutional change was held Dec. 1.

McElroy said the Senate confirmation amendment became a part of the constitution on the date of approval by voters. But he added that the governor could not be required to submit appointments to the November Senate session because the official canvass had not been held.

"To comply with the spirit of Section 21, Article III, Ohio Constitution, such appointments should be reported to the next Senate," McElroy said. He added that appointments between Nov. 21 and Dec. 1 also should go to the Senate.

Wreck Injuries Fatal

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Mary Phillips, 67, of Painesville, one of 10 persons hurt Sunday in a two-car collision, died Wednesday night of her injuries at Lake County Memorial Hospital here. The accident was on Ohio 44 a mile north of Chardon.

Reservoir Bonds Sold

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Sale of bonds to New York and Chicago investment firms has given Mahoning and Trumbull counties $4.25 million to finance their share of the $14.3 million West Branch Reservoir.

Dispute Clouds Fund-Raising Bid For Scholarships

CINCINNATI (AP) — A storm over plans not to use union musicians has clouded an appearance here Jan. 2 of the Princeton Triangle Club Revue on a fund-raising tour for scholarships.

Eugene V. Frey, president of Local 1 of the Musicians Union, scheduled a conference today, contending the show in the past has used union musicians and should again this year.

Craig Nalen, who headed the show's Cincinnati committee, said past shows did hire union help, but used them only at intermission. He said the committee decided the help was not needed this time.

Nalen said the show has student musicians who are "strictly amatuers, doing it for kicks. They don't get a nickel out of it."

Frey said, "Our position is that the students are displacing job opportunities for union musicians."

Education Board Right Upheld In Annexation Cases

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court has upheld the state board of education's authority to determine so - called "equitable division" of funds and indebtedness in school district annexation cases.

The 6-0 decision came Wednesday in allowing a writ of mandamus asked by the Whitehall School District. The writ requires the Columbus City School District to assume $450,103 of the Whitehall district's bonded debt and to make an immediate payment of more than $45,000. The area in question was annexed between 1954 and 1957.

In another case the high court held unanimously that a Toledo policeman is entitled to a new common pleas court trial in his appeal from dismissal.

Patrolman Kenneth W. Cupps was fired in 1958 on charges of conduct unbecoming an officer by dating a juvenile both on and off duty.

Common pleas court heard the case, under a Supreme Court order, and dismissed it on grounds that Cupps had not sustained his burden of proof. The high court said the lower court erred in placing the burder of proof on Cupps and that he is entitled to a new trial.

Gets $1 Million Loan

New And Higher Standards Seen For U.S. Schools

CHICAGO (AP) — The head of the teachers union predicted today that in the next five years public schools will attain new, higher standards under collective bargaining.

Carl J. Megel, Chicago, president of the AFL-CIO American Federation of Teachers, made the forecast at the annual midyear meeting of the federation's executive council.

A national pattern was set, he said, when New York City teachers elected by a nearly 2-1 vote the United Federation of Teachers, Local 2 of the AFT, as their bargaining agent.

"It is only logical now that other large and small American federation of teachers' locals will take similar steps," Megel said. "The public will find that teachers who walk upright in their own behalf are better teachers."

Cherokee District Boy Scout Camp Will Be Held Jan. 5-7

Plans have been completed for the annual winter camp Jan. 5-7 at Camp McKinley at Lisbon for Boy Scouts and Explorers of the Cherokee District.

Bill Rayburn, camping and activities chief, announced that check-in time is Friday, Jan. 5, at 5 p. m. until Saturday, Jan. 6, at 10 a. m. Religious services will be held Sunday morning, Jan. 7 at the stone house and the camp will end at 2 p. m.

Rayburn said "winter camping is a rugged outdoor experience and requires thoughtful preparations to insure the most comfort and an enjoyable weekend for the scouts."

He said waterproof shoes or boots are a must for the camp with wool socks and warm clothing with rain gear needed.

The boys will also require a sleeping bag or at least three or four blankets. Ground cloths are also required.

Scouts will be inspected on arrival for sufficient winter wear by Paul Calhoun, inspection chief. Campcraft and scoutcraft will be the theme of the camp. Original ideas for winter camping and putting scout knowledge to use will be judged.

All units were urged to start preparing now, practice their cooking and assemble necessary equipment. All cooking will be done by the troops on the menu they prepare.

Unannounced inspections will be held at various times for cleanliness, scoutcrafts and comfort.

An adult staff of some 10 men will handle all events, inspections and safety. The public is invited to attend any time.

The Cherokee District has 26 troops and five Explorer Posts. Some 20 troops are expected to participate.

Good State Unit To Continue Job, Co-Leader Says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A co-chairman of the Committee for Good State Government says his group will continue to function despite an announcement by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle that any further action by the group will have no bearing on his decision to reconsider running for a second term.

The co-chairman, Port Clinton publisher Robert Reider, said Wednesday:

"We feel that we have gained one of our primary objectives by providing tangible evidence of the popular support given the program initiated by the governor. In less than a month more than 200,000 Ohioans have asked Gov. DiSalle to reconsider his decision not to seek re-election and have pledged him their support."

Reider added that if DiSalle still refuses to run for a second term the committee's statewide organization will work to continue the programs DiSalle has advocated in the areas of mental health, education, welfare and economic - industrial growth in the state.

The immediate goal of the committee, Reider said, is to get the county groups to promote seminars on state government which the governor and members of his cabinet will conduct in the larger cities early in 1962.

Psychiatric Exams Due Accused Killer

CINCINNATI (AP) — Psychiatric tests at Lima State Hospital are ahead for Steril S. Fox, 33, of Cincinnati, accused of shooting and killing his wife last Nov. 1.

Judge Ferd Bader ordered the tests Wednesday after Fox's attorney reported the man started a hunger strike in jail Dec. 10. Asked why he refused to eat, Fox told the judge, "God Almighty told me not to."

Cherokee District Boy Scout Camp Will Be Held Jan. 5-7

Plans have been completed for the annual winter camp Jan. 5-7 at Camp McKinley at Lisbon for Boy Scouts and Explorers of the Cherokee District.

Bill Rayburn, camping and activities chief, announced that check-in time is Friday, Jan. 5, at 5 p. m. until Saturday, Jan. 6, at 10 a. m. Religious services will be held Sunday morning, Jan. 7 at the stone house and the camp will end at 2 p. m.

Rayburn said "winter camping is a rugged outdoor experience and requires thoughtful preparations to insure the most comfort and an enjoyable weekend for the scouts."

He said waterproof shoes or boots are a must for the camp with wool socks and warm clothing with rain gear needed.

The boys will also require a sleeping bag or at least three or four blankets. Ground cloths are also required.

Scouts will be inspected on arrival for sufficient winter wear by Paul Calhoun, inspection chief. Campcraft and scoutcraft will be the theme of the camp. Original ideas for winter camping and putting scout knowledge to use will be judged.

All units were urged to start preparing now, practice their cooking and assemble necessary equipment. All cooking will be done by the troops on the menu they prepare.

Unannounced inspections will be held at various times for cleanliness, scoutcrafts and comfort.

An adult staff of some 10 men will handle all events, inspections and safety. The public is invited to attend any time.

The Cherokee District has 26 troops and five Explorer Posts. Some 20 troops are expected to participate.

Education Board Right Upheld In Annexation Cases

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court has upheld the state board of education's authority to determine so - called "equitable division" of funds and indebtedness in school district annexation cases.

The 6-0 decision came Wednesday in allowing a writ of mandamus asked by the Whitehall School District. The writ requires the Columbus City School District to assume $450,103 of the Whitehall district's bonded debt and to make an immediate payment of more than $45,000. The area in question was annexed between 1954 and 1957.

In another case the high court held unanimously that a Toledo policeman is entitled to a new common pleas court trial in his appeal from dismissal.

Patrolman Kenneth W. Cupps was fired in 1958 on charges of conduct unbecoming an officer by dating a juvenile both on and off duty.

Common pleas court heard the case under a Supreme Court order, and dismissed it on grounds that Cupps had not sustained his burden of proof. The high court said the lower court erred in placing the burder of proof on Cupps and that he is entitled to a new trial.

New And Higher Standards Seen For U.S. Schools

CHICAGO (AP) — The head of the teachers union predicted today that in the next five years public schools will attain new, higher standards under collective bargaining.

Carl J. Megel, Chicago, president of the AFL-CIO American Federation of Teachers, made the forecast at the annual midyear meeting of the federation's executive council.

A national pattern was set, he said, when New York City teachers elected by a nearly 2-1 vote the United Federation of Teachers, Local 2 of the AFT, as their bargaining agent.

"It is only logical now that other large and small American federation of teachers' locals will take similar steps," Megel said. "The public will find that teachers who walk upright in their own behalf are better teachers."

Good State Unit To Continue Job, Co-Leader Says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A co-chairman of the Committee for Good State Government says his group will continue to function despite an announcement by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle that any further action by the group will have no bearing on his decision to reconsider running for a second term.

The co-chairman, Port Clinton publisher Robert Reider, said Wednesday:

"We feel that we have gained one of our primary objectives by providing tangible evidence of the popular support given the program initiated by the governor. In less than a month more than 200,000 Ohioans have asked Gov. DiSalle to reconsider his decision not to seek re-election and have pledged him their support."

Reider added that if DiSalle still refuses to run for a second term the committee's statewide organization will work to continue the programs DiSalle has advocated in the areas of mental health, education, welfare and economic - industrial growth in the state.

The immediate goal of the committee, Reider said, is to get the county groups to promote seminars on state government which the governor and members of his cabinet will conduct in the larger cities early in 1962.

Youths Fined For Entry Bid

LISBON — Two Negley area boys, 15 and 17, who with another youth were surprised in an attempted burglary Tuesday night at East Palestine High School, were fined $25 each and placed on a 5 p. m. curfew this morning by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin. The court ordered them to pay for a damaged door.

Their companion, Jerry Pratt, 18, of Negley R. D. originally charged with breaking and entering, is to have a hearing before Judge Tobin today on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of the two minor boys. Authorities said Pratt has no previous record and the breaking and entering charge will be dropped.

Patrolman Wayne Huston saw something move in the bushes around the high school about 9 p. m. as he made a routine check of the grounds with his cruiser spotlight. He got out and caught Pratt and the 15-year old. The other boy was apprehended two hours later while frequenting City Hall in an effort to find out what happened to his buddies.

After questioning the boys, police checked the school and found three burlap bags full of woodworking tools valued at $750. The boys got into the building by drilling a four-inch hole next to the lock on a rear door and reached inside to unlock it.

Pratt's car was parked two blocks away at the end of a wooded ravine leading from the school.

Judge Absolves Man In Charge Of Fighting

Acting Muncipal Judge Donald D. Shay today dismissed a charge of disorderly conduct by fighting against George Taylor, 128, E. 2nd St., as a result of a fight Saturday afternoon in which a large plate glass window was broken in the Diamond Cafe on the Diamond.

Taylor testified the sidewalk fight was started by Ray Grimes, 331 Sarah St., who forfeited a $32.50 bond on a fighting charge Tuesday. Taylor pleaded not guilty at arraignment Tuesday and his hearing was continued until today.

Taylor testified Grimes picked an argument with him inside the tavern and was asked to leave by the bartender. Taylor said when he left a short time later Grimes was waiting on the sidewalk and started a fight. The window was broken by a bottle which Grimes hurled, Taylor testified.

Railroad Engineer Struck By BB Pellet

SALINEVILLE — A Pennsylvania Railroad engineer nearly lost the sight of an eye when struck with the pellet from an air rifle while operating a switcher through the village Wednesday night about 8.

Police Chief Cleo Mellott said Charles James of Irondale was struck in the eye while the engine was at the crossing on E. Main St. He said the pellet had penetrated the safety glass before striking James.

The air gun had been fired by a small boy who had received it for a Christmas present. Mellott said the boy was located after James was treated by a local physician.

Mellott said he found the engineer sitting in the cab of the engine with blood running from his eye. The physician said if the pellet had struck him a quarter of an inch more toward the center, it would have ruined the sight of the eye.

Red Troubleshooter Plans Visit To Guinea

LONDON (AP)—One of the Soviet Union's top troubleshooters, First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan, will visit Guinea next month in an attempt to smooth ruffled relations with that West African republic, Moscow radio says.

There were rumors in Moscow last week that Guinea's President Sekow Toure had complained to the Kremlin that a Communist plot to overthrow his previously pro-Soviet government had been directed by an "East European embassy."

Aid, Trade, Communism Threat

3 Problems Need Solving, Ohioans In Congress Say

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many Ohio members of Congress believe the United States will have to find new answers in 1962 to the mounting problems of foreign aid, foreign trade and the threat of communism.

Some specific proposals have been put forward recently by Republican Reps. Frank T. Bow of Canton, William H. Harsha of Portsmouth, Delberta Latta of Bowling Green, Gorden Scherer of Cincinnati, Tom V. Moorehead of Zanesville and Democratic Sen. Stephen M. Young of Shaker Heights.

Moorehead summed up some of the more pressing problems the nation will face in the new year:

"The world is pock-marked with crises from Southeast Asia to Cuba. Khrushchev narrows our lead in atomic weapons and attempts to measure his success in megatons of fear . . .

"Important competition and increasing American investments in industrial facilities abroad demand attention."

Young expressed belief the recent Russian nuclear tests were to test anti-missile missiles and that if the Soviets were successful the threat to this country is "truly grave." So, in 1962, the United States may have to conduct its own tests in the atmosphere, he said.

Harsha and Latta have urged strict controls to halt U.S. trade and aid to such governments as Communist Cuba and socialist British Guiana.

"You can't help the slaves by feeding the slave drivers," Harsha protested in asking the State Department to reverse its decision to help the New Guianan regime appraise its economic needs.

Latta, after sitting in on a special House investigation of U.S. exports to Soviet bloc countries—including shipments of beans to Cuba—said new legislation may be needed to strengthen export controls and the Trading With the Enemy Act.

Scherer, ranking Republican on the House Committee on Un-American Activities, urged schools throughout the nation to instruct students on the menace of communism to the American system of government.

Scherer was joined by Moorehead in urging renewed efforts to combat subversion within the United States, particularly halting of the flow of propagadna through the mails.

Moorehead said now that the Communist Party and its members have been required to register with the government, their activities will go deeper underground and be harder to detect. The House, in the closing days of its last session, passed a bill authorizing postal authorities to advise recipients that unsolicited mail from abroad may contain Communist propaganda, but some members believe a stiffer bill is needed.

Bow, in a hard-hitting series of statements, has been the most outspoken opponent of the Kennedy administration's proposal to lower foreign trade barriers. Bow charges the administration would sacrifice domestic jobs and industries on the altar of international politics and he has introduced a bill to increase protection for U.S. industry and give Congress firmer control over foreign trade policy.

Trustees Set To Organize In Townships

Boards of Trustees of district townships await meetings at which most will reorganize with several welcoming new members as the result of the Nov. 7 election.

St. Clair Township's board will hold its final meeting of 1961 Friday at 4 p. m. in the Township Hall on the Calcutta - Cannons Mill Rd. The board will also reorganize at this session.

Next year's board will be the same as Harold Williams and Lorain Faulks were re-elected in November. The holdover member is Fred Hopper. Neil McIntosh is clerk.

Williams has served as chairman for the past six years.

The Liverpool Township board will reorganize at a meeting Monday at 10 a. m. at the home of Simon C. Hall of Beacon Way, clerk.

The board is expected to adopt a temporary budget and reappoint road crews, Hall reported.

Richard Sanford will begin duty as a new member, succeeding Wilbur Zinkan, who was defeated in the November election. Guy Digman was re-elected. The holdover member is Frank Gray.

A new chairman will be named at Monday's meeting. Digman served as chairman in 1961.

Yellow Creek Township trustees will hold their yearend meeting Saturday at 10 a. m. in the Township House on Old Salineville Rd. and probably will reorganize for 1962.

The same board will serve as Robert B. Boyce and George Yaney were re-elected. G. Walter Boyd is clerk. Boyce is chairman.

Madison Township's board will hold its yearend meeting Friday night at 6:30 in the township garage and expects to set a date for its reorganization meeting for 1962.

Regis Scharf is clerk. The board will have two new members in Frank Woodrow and Ralph Cusick. They succeed Charles Snyder, chairman, and Kenneth Barnes, who were defeated in November. Isaac Jones is the holdover member.

The Saline Township board will hold its final meeting of the year Friday at 1 p. m. in the Township Hall in Hammondsville.

The board includes John Boyle and Wesley Glenn, who were re-elected in November, and Frank Scarabino, the holdover. Mrs. Beula Billie is clerk. Scarabino is chairman.

Ohio Jobless Claims Soar Over 100,000

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Continuing claims for unemployment compensation — those representing persons unemployed for one week or more—went above 100,000 in the week ended Dec. 23.

The total of continuing claims on file that week was 100,597. This compared with 171,745 in December 1960.

New claims filed during the week totaled 19,774, up from 18,679 the previous week.

On Long-Range Plans

Farmer Union Head Hits U.S. Deparment Study

WASHINGTON (AP)—The leader of a national farm organization which in general has been friendly to Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has criticized a recent study by the department.

The criticism is from President James G. Patton of the farmers' union over a department study of long-range farm plans.

This study—which may or may not become the basis of the Kennedy Administration farm policies—proposes to balance farm production and imposing limits on marketings. These programs would offer farmers price supports and payments to help offset income lost from idled land and marketing limitations.

Patton goes along with the devices for adjusting production, but is critical of the supplementary financial aid, saying it is inadequate. He wrote Freeman the amounts proposed fail to meet promises Democrats made in the 1960 presidential campaign.

These studies proposed a net farm income goal of $13 billion by 1965. This compares with an estimated $12.6 billion this year.

"This is almost preposterous," Patton wrote. "After all, net farm income was $15.3 billion way back in 1952. To shoot for a mere $13 billion four years from now would be to turn the clock far back."

The study also emphasized proposals for training low - income people to leave farming for other work. Patton described this as a "negative approach."

"What is really needed," he said, "is much more credit at reasonable rates to enable young people to enter the modern business of farming and to enable perfectly fine farmers to expand their less-than - economic operations into units which would return a fair standard of living."

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department today estimated Americans consumed 488.5 billion cigarettes this year, a record high and 18.4 billion more than in 1960.

A tobacco situation report predicted a further increase in 1962.

The report said consumption of cigars this year was the largest since 1923. Consumption of smoking tobacco rose a little but not much change occurred in chewing tobacco. Use of snuff declined.

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)— Ohio Wesleyan University has received $20,000 from three alumni to endow a departmental library in a new science center.

Postmaster Reports Savings For Payroll

EAST PALESTINE — Postmaster Harry Andrus today announced a savings of $650 in the payroll for December.

He said this was possible by cutting the home deliveries to one a day instead of the customary two and three deliveries during the Christmas season.

A total of 382,786 pieces of mail were processed this Christmas in 1,831 man hours. A year ago, the 384,186 pieces of mail processed required 2,158 hours.

This year the volume was actually heavier per day as Dec. 24 was on Sunday, Andrus said.

Prior to Christmas, patrons were asked to place a larger receptacle near their mail boxes to handle the heavy load received in one delivery.

Man Released 15 Days Ago Faces Bank Theft Count

CINCINNATI (AP) — Elijah Caudill, 25-year-old Kentuckian released only 15 days ago from prison, faces a federal bank robbery charge in a $4,200 holdup Wednesday.

It took police only 46 minutes to find Caudill in a taxicab wearing new clothes detectives said he bought with robbery loot.

Caudill, from Hazard, Ky., was arrested after the morning holdup of the Fifth Third Union Trust Co. Oakley branch.

Police in Norwood, where he was found, said he told them he walked down the street a few doors from the bank to a men's store where he bought a new hat, coat and trousers.

Norwood police recognized him from a description of the clothes. Most of the money was recovered.

Caudill waived a hearing and was held on $10,000 bond. He told officers he had been released from Terre Haute, Ind., Penitentiary, earlier this month after a term for auto theft.

There are slightly more than a million coin phones in this country.

Ohio Jobless Claims Soar Over 100,000

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Continuing claims for unemployment compensation — those representing persons unemployed for one week or more—went above 100,000 in the week ended Dec. 23.

The total of continuing claims on file that week was 100,597. This compared with 171,745 in December 1960.

New claims filed during the week totaled 19,774, up from 18,679 the previous week.

Man Released 15 Days Ago Faces Bank Theft Count

CINCINNATI (AP) — Elijah Caudill, 25-year-old Kentuckian released only 15 days ago from prison, faces a federal bank robbery charge in a $4,200 holdup Wednesday.

It took police only 46 minutes to find Caudill in a taxicab wearing new clothes detectives said he bought with robbery loot.

Caudill, from Hazard, Ky., was arrested after the morning holdup of the Fifth Third Union Trust Co. Oakley branch.

Police in Norwood, where he was found, said he told them he walked down the street a few doors from the bank to a men's store where he bought a new hat, coat and trousers.

Norwood police recognized him from a description of the clothes. Most of the money was recovered.

Caudill waived a hearing and was held on $10,000 bond. He told officers he had been released from Terre Haute, Ind., Penitentiary, earlier this month after a term for auto theft.

There are slightly more than a million coin phones in this country.

On Long-Range Plans

Farmer Union Head Hits U.S. Deparment Study

WASHINGTON (AP)—The leader of a national farm organization which in general has been friendly to Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has criticized a recent study by the department.

The criticism is from President James G. Patton of the farmers' union over a department study of long-range farm plans.

This study—which may or may not become the basis of the Kennedy Administration farm policies—proposes to balance farm production and imposing limits on marketings. These programs would offer farmers price supports and payments to help offset income lost from idled land and marketing limitations.

Patton goes along with the devices for adjusting production, but is critical of the supplementary financial aid, saying it is inadequate. He wrote Freeman the amounts proposed fail to meet promises Democrats made in the 1960 presidential campaign.

These studies proposed a net farm income goal of $13 billion by 1965. This compares with an estimated $12.6 billion this year.

"This is almost preposterous," Patton wrote. "After all, net farm income was $15.3 billion way back in 1952. To shoot for a mere $13 billion four years from now would be to turn the clock far back."

The study also emphasized proposals for training low - income people to leave farming for other work. Patton described this as a "negative approach."

"What is really needed," he said, "is much more credit at reasonable rates to enable young people to enter the modern business of farming and to enable perfectly fine farmers to expand their less-than - economic operations into units which would return a fair standard of living."

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department today estimated Americans consumed 488.5 billion cigarettes this year, a record high and 18.4 billion more than in 1960.

A tobacco situation report predicted a further increase in 1962.

The report said consumption of cigars this year was the largest since 1923. Consumption of smoking tobacco rose a little but not much change occurred in chewing tobacco. Use of snuff declined.

Postmaster Reports Savings For Payroll

EAST PALESTINE — Postmaster Harry Andrus today announced a savings of $650 in the payroll for December.

He said this was possible by cutting the home deliveries to one a day instead of the customary two and three deliveries during the Christmas season.

A total of 382,786 pieces of mail were processed this Christmas in 1,831 man hours. A year ago, the 384,186 pieces of mail processed required 2,158 hours.

This year the volume was actually heavier per day as Dec. 24 was on Sunday, Andrus said.

Prior to Christmas, patrons were asked to place a larger receptacle near their mail boxes to handle the heavy load received in one delivery.

Section 8 Foes--Midland, Monaca--Gain Tourney Finals

Leopards Top Wellsville, 59-32; Ft. Cherry Is Overtime Loser

By ANDY NUZZO

The Midland Leopards and Monaca Indians will clash tonight in the championship game of the Midland Leopard Boosters' Holiday Tournament.

The two Section 8 teams will tangle at 8:30 following the consolation game between Wellsville and Fort Cherry, which gets underway at 7 p.m.

Otto Prichard's Indians gained the final game by defeating Fort Cherry, 44-42, in an overtime thriller, and Hank Kuzma's Leopards followed with a convincing 59-32 rout of Wellsville Tigers.

RIGHT behind Aloi was Bill Sallis, who ripped the nets for 19 points, twelve of them coming in the second quarter. He scored mostly on rebound shots.

Ball-hawking Rich Lake finished the night with 11 points and came up with many interceptions. He scored three of his goals by intercepting an opponent pass and drive for an easy lay-up.

George Drakulich started his first game for the Leopards and turned in a fine floor game. Sam Forester sat out most of the game because of illness.

ROGER Ours led the Tigers with nine points. He was followed by Jim Powell, who garnered seven.

Wellsville sorely missed the services of Steve Baldwin, their 6-6 center who is averaging 22 points per game. Baldwin injured his ankle against Lisbon last week and was ordered to stay out of action for at least a week.

The Leopards sank 25 of 67 shots for a 37 per cent while the Tigers hit on only 12 of 49 shots for 25 per cent.

In the rebounding department both squads cleared the boards with 40. Aloi and Sallis had ten apiece.

The game was close during the first quarter with Midland leading at the end, 15-11.

In the second stanza Sallis took over and moved the Leopards to a 31-21 half time advantage. He scored 12 of the 16 points Midland managed in the second stanza.

—:—

MIDWAY through the third period the Leopards put the game out of reach with a nine point scoring spree.

With the score 39-28, Aloi hit two quick fielders, Sallis added two free throws, Lake a lay-up, and Petrosky a free throw to move the Leopards to a commanding 48-28 lead. Ours hit on a jumper at the buzzer and the Leopards went into the fourth stanza leading, 48-30.

Midland held Wellsville to a meager two free throws in the final quarter while they piled up 11 and coasted to the 59-32 win. It was the eighth consecutive victory for Midland. Wellsville absorbed its third loss of the season against one victory.

IN THE opener, the Monaca Indians, sparked by the fine all-around play of Sam Peshut, edged Fort Cherry in overtime, 44-42.

Peshut led the Indians with 15 points, scoring 9 of these in the final quarter. He had a tough time finding the range, but still sparkled on defense, blocking shots and controlling the boards. He led all rebounders with 20.

Monaca got off to a bad start, dropping behind at the end of the first stanza, 11-2. But the Indians never gave up and finally overtook Fort Cherry with 3:57 remaining in the third quarter.

PESHUT tipped in a rebound and gave the Indians a 36-35 lead. Monaca moved it out to 40-37, but Fort Cherry's sharp-shooting guard, Paul Lowe, sank a free throw and a jumper from the side and pulled the game even at 40-40. Lowe led all scorers with 19 points.

In the overtime, Lowe opened it with a lay-up but Jack Lang came back with a lay-up and Joe Dettore added two free throws with 33 seconds to give the Indians their margin of victory.

Trophies will be presented to the four teams, the most valuable player, all tourney team, and 13 winning team awards, after the conclusion of the championship game.

Sharp Defense Shown By Orange Bowl Teams

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "Pick up your feet, you big horse." ... "Don't throw the ball away." ... "Come back and run that one again boys, you looked a little ragged."

"We're showing progress every day and I hope we continue to show improvement," Dietzel said. "It will take an excellent effort on our part to beat an outstanding Colorado team."

While the Bengals worked behind closed gates, Colorado scrimmaged openly.

"They hit out there and that's what counts," Colorado Coach Sonny Grandelius observed. "But the team is not as far along now as when they finished the season and time is getting short."

Australians Continue To Burn Up Net Trail

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Australians Rod Laver and Roy Emerson completed a 5-0 rout of Italy in the Davis Cup challenge round today, then settled back to await professional offers from tennis promoter Jack Kramer.

Both are reported interested in joining the Kramer troupe for a swing through Australia beginning next month.

Although Kramer hasn't spoken, he is expected to offer the two young, Queenslanders contracts similar to those accepted by Americans Butch Buchholz and Barry Mackay right after the Davis Cup competition last year. They were guaranteed about $30,000 for three years.

Laver turned back Italian ace Nicola Pietrangeli in a five-set match after Emerson had routed Orlando Sirola, 6-2, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2. Laver finaly prevailed over Pietrangeli 6-3, 3-6, 4-6, 6-3, 8-6.

Laver and Emerson hold all the major amateur tennis titles of 1961. Laver won the Wimbledon championship and Emerson took the Australian and U.S. titles, the latter in an upset of Laver.

Old-Timers Tourney Slated At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — The second annual "Old Timers" basketball program will be presented tonight at 7 at the high school gymnasium.

Six brief games will be presented. The teams will be made up of graduates of Salineville High School. Proceeds will go to the Boosters Club.

Al Girone and Bob Carter are in charge. They said anyone interested in playing may contact them tonight at the gym.

Buckeyes Meet UCLA After Struggle With Washington

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Memo to Woody Hayes: Hey coach, Ohio State is going to play UCLA after all. But don't pull back those Christmas cards with the drooping roses. The game is not in your sport.

The Ohio State Buckeyes, stopped by a faculty committee from accepting a Rose Bowl football invitation to play the Uclans at Pasadena, will bring it off in basketball instead—tonight in the semifinals of the power-packed Los Angeles classic.

The Bucks, unanimous choices as No. 1 among the college hoopsters again this season, made it eight in a row with a hard-earned 59-49 first round victory over Washington at the Los Angeles Arena Wednesday night. Jerry Lucas, the two-time All-America, led with 20 points and a bundle of rebounds for the Bucks, who'll meet a UCLA team that toyed with Army 86-72 in its tournament opener.

The other semifinal matches pair fourth-ranked Southern California, an 80-63 winer over Purdue, and unranked Utah, which whipped seventh-ranked West Virginia, 84-83.

Ten other major tournaments will be in action tonight, including such choice pairings as defending NCAA champ Cincinnati vs. La-Salle and unbeaten Dayton vs. Wisconsin in the Holiday Festival at New York; and Villanova vs. third-ranked Duquesne in a semifinal battle of unbeatens in the Quaker City tournament at Philadelphia.

The All-College matches Bowling Green, which knocked Seattle out of the unbeaten ranks 70-61 Wednesday night, against Wichita, 71-69 victor over Texas A&M in overtime; plus a game between Tuesday's winners, Houston and Utah State.

Here are Wednesday night's key games:

Los Angeles Classic—Lucas' 20 points and rebounding, John Havlicek's 12 points and solid defense by the whole club kept Ohio State in control against Washington, although the Huskies once got to within four points in second half. Southern Cal (8-1) got 19 points apiece from John Rudometkin and Chris Appel and held All-America Terry Dischinger to 12—less than half his average—in romp over once-beaten Purdue. Gary Cunningham's 21 points, 17 in first half, triggered UCLA's rout of Army; and Billy McGill, the nation's leading scorer, netted 39 points—a tournament record—as Utah (9-1) spilled West Virginia to its second loss in eight starts.

Big Eight—Mike Wroblewski's 20 points led fifth-ranked Kansas State (8-1) over Nebraska; and Missouri (5-4) upset Oklahoma State (7-2) 60-44 with a second half rally.

Far West at Portland, Ore.—Washington State, with Terry Ball scoring 23, spilled California 61-54, and Oregon State crushed Michigan 89-54. Tonight, it's Idaho-Portland and Oregon-Michigan State, completing the first round.

All-College at Oklahoma City—Bowling Green (6-1), down by 11 at the half, routed Seattle in second half, with 6-8 Nate Thurmond leading the way with 18 points. Then Wichita, with a 9-1 record including a one-point upset of Cincinnati, edged Texas A&M in overtime as Ernie Moore scored after swiping an Aggie pass with 11 seconds left.

Gulf South at Shreveport—Richie Goldberg's 24 points led Mississippi Southern's 81-72 triumph over Louisiana Tech; and Centenary downed Murray (Ky) 81-69.

Steubenville (Ohio) was eliminated from the Winged Foot Holiday Basketball Festival in New York in a 55-41 defeat at the hands of Belmont Abbey. Belmont Abbey led from the start and held a 27-17 halftime lead. Bernie Drennan was high for the winners with 14 points. Chuck Zerger scored 13 points for Steubenville. Belmont Abbey will meet the host New York Athletic Club for the championship Friday night.

Kentucky, ranked sixth nationally, headed the teams playing in nontournament activity. The Wildcats, with Larry Pursiful hitting for 25 points and Cotton Nash and Carroll Burchett 16 apiece, thumped Yale 79-58 for their seventh victory in eight starts. Ralph Wells scored the last four of his 21 points in overtime for Northwestern's 64-62 decision over Princeton; St. Louis snapped a four-game losing streak, 81-72 over Notre Dame; New Mexico State whipped Brigham Young 70-64 and Marquette branch, 930.

Stanton Shoots For 6th Straight; Two Other Games Set Friday

Coach Harry Diehl's unconquored Raiders (5-0) go against their Jefferson County Class A foes in the highlight of a light night of action on district courts.

Only two other games are on tap, in addition to the annual South Side Invitational Tournament at the Hookstown area school.

The meager schedule also finds Jefferson Union invading Chester and Beaver Local (1-2) traveling to United (3-2) in a battle of arch rivals.

Henderson, a former Irondale athlete, apparently has found a way to hold down the scoring of Stanton's All-Ohio center, Don (Wilt) Spires, 6-6 senior.

Though Brilliant lost two games last year and one this year to Stanton Local, Spires has been held to his lowest point accumulations against the Blue Devils.

Last season, the young giant was held to only eight at Brilliant, and 15 in the game at Irondale. Henderson's squad held Spires to 12 this year but lost, 45-36.

Other teams haven't been so successful in stopping the scoring efforts of Coach Diehl's prize pupil. Spires has tallied 111 this season for a nifty 22.2 average.

And opponents have also found that stopping or at least slowing Spires isn't the only answer to the solution of how to stop Diehl's Raiders.

Teammate Bob Mills is regarded as almost as great a scorer. Mills, 6-2 forward, is averaging 18.4 points a game with a total of 92 for the season. And he's a polished, all-around player to boot.

Brilliant brings a 3-2 record to Irondale for Friday night's return engagement. The varsity action gets underway at 8:30. The reserve tipoff is at 7:30.

Section 8 Foes--Midland, Monaca--Gain Tourney Finals

Leopards Top Wellsville, 59-32; Ft. Cherry Is Overtime Loser

By ANDY NUZZO

The Midland Leopards and Monaca Indians will clash tonight in the championship game of the Midland Leopard Boosters' Holiday Tournament.

The two Section 8 teams will tangle at 8:30 following the consolation game between Wellsville and Fort Cherry, which gets underway at 7 p.m.

Otto Prichard's Indians gained the final game by defeating Fort Cherry, 44-42, in an overtime thriller, and Hank Kuzma's Leopards followed with a convincing 59-32 rout of Wellsville Tigers.

RIGHT behind Aloi was Bill Sallis, who ripped the nets for 19 points, twelve of them coming in the second quarter. He scored mostly on rebound shots.

Ball-hawking Rich Lake finished the night with 11 points and came up with many interceptions. He scored three of his goals by intercepting an opponent pass and drive for an easy lay-up.

George Drakulich started his first game for the Leopards and turned in a fine floor game. Sam Forester sat out most of the game because of illness.

ROGER Ours led the Tigers with nine points. He was followed by Jim Powell, who garnered seven.

Wellsville sorely missed the services of Steve Baldwin, their 6-6 center who is averaging 22 points per game. Baldwin injured his ankle against Lisbon last week and was ordered to stay out of action for at least a week.

The Leopards sank 25 of 67 shots for a 37 per cent while the Tigers hit on only 12 of 49 shots for 25 per cent.

In the rebounding department both squads cleared the boards with 40. Aloi and Sallis had ten apiece.

The game was close during the first quarter with Midland leading at the end, 15-11.

In the second stanza Sallis took over and moved the Leopards to a 31-21 half time advantage. He scored 12 of the 16 points Midland managed in the second stanza.

—:—

MIDWAY through the third period the Leopards put the game out of reach with a nine point scoring spree.

With the score 39-28, Aloi hit two quick fielders, Sallis added two free throws, Lake a lay-up, and Petrosky a free throw to move the Leopards to a commanding 48-28 lead. Ours hit on a jumper at the buzzer and the Leopards went into the fourth stanza leading, 48-30.

Midland held Wellsville to a meager two free throws in the final quarter while they piled up 11 and coasted to the 59-32 win. It was the eighth consecutive victory for Midland. Wellsville absorbed its third loss of the season against one victory.

IN THE opener, the Monaca Indians, sparked by the fine all-around play of Sam Peshut, edged Fort Cherry in overtime, 44-42.

Peshut led the Indians with 15 points, scoring 9 of these in the final quarter. He had a tough time finding the range, but still sparkled on defense, blocking shots and controlling the boards. He led all rebounders with 20.

Monaca got off to a bad start, dropping behind at the end of the first stanza, 11-2. But the Indians never gave up and finally overtook Fort Cherry with 3:57 remaining in the third quarter.

PESHUT tipped in a rebound and gave the Indians a 36-35 lead. Monaca moved it out to 40-37, but Fort Cherry's sharp-shooting guard, Paul Lowe, sank a free throw and a jumper from the side and pulled the game even at 40-40. Lowe led all scorers with 19 points.

In the overtime, Lowe opened it with a lay-up but Jack Lang came back with a lay-up and Joe Dettore added two free throws with 33 seconds to give the Indians their margin of victory.

Trophies will be presented to the four teams, the most valuable player, all tourney team, and 13 winning team awards, after the conclusion of the championship game.

Sharp Defense Shown By Orange Bowl Teams

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "Pick up your feet, you big horse." ... "Don't throw the ball away." ... "Come back and run that one again boys, you looked a little ragged."

These were the sounds of the practice field Wednesday as Colorado and Louisiana State picked up the tempo aimed at their Orange Bowl football collision Monday.

"We're showing progress every day and I hope we continue to show improvement," Dietzel said. "It will take an excellent effort on our part to beat an outstanding Colorado team."

While the Bengals worked behind closed gates, Colorado scrimmaged openly.

"They hit out there and that's what counts," Colorado Coach Sonny Grandelius observed. "But the team is not as far along now as when they finished the season and time is getting short."

Australians Continue To Burn Up Net Trail

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Australians Rod Laver and Roy Emerson completed a 5-0 rout of Italy in the Davis Cup challenge round today, then settled back to await professional offers from tennis promoter Jack Kramer.

Both are reported interested in joining the Kramer troupe for a swing through Australia beginning next month.

Although Kramer hasn't spoken, he is expected to offer the two young Queenslanders contracts similar to those accepted by Americans Butch Buchholz and Barry Mackay right after the Davis Cup competition last year. They were guaranteed about $30,000 for three years.

Laver turned back Italian ace Nicola Pietrangeli in a five-set match after Emerson had routed Orlando Sirola, 6-2, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2. Laver finaly prevailed over Pietrangeli 6-3, 3-6, 4-6, 6-3, 8-6.

Laver and Emerson hold all the major amateur tennis titles of 1961. Laver won the Wimbledon championship and Emerson took the Australian and U.S. titles, the latter in an upset of Laver.

Buckeyes Meet UCLA After Struggle With Washington

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Memo to Woody Hayes: Hey coach, Ohio State is going to play UCLA after all. But don't pull back those Christmas cards with the drooping roses. The game is not in your sport.

The Ohio State Buckeyes, stopped by a faculty committee from accepting a Rose Bowl football invitation to play the Uclans at Pasadena, will bring it off in basketball instead—tonight in the semifinals of the power-packed Los Angeles classic.

The Bucks, unanimous choices as No. 1 among the college hoopsters again this season, made it eight in a row with a hard-earned 59-49 first round victory over Washington at the Los Angeles Arena Wednesday night. Jerry Lucas, the two-time All-America, led with 20 points and a bundle of rebounds for the Bucks, who'll meet a UCLA team that toyed with Army 86-72 in its tournament opener.

The other semifinal matches pair fourth-ranked Southern California, an 80-63 winer over Purdue, and unranked Utah, which whipped seventh-ranked West Virginia, 84-83.

Ten other major tournaments will be in action tonight, including such choice pairings as defending NCAA champ Cincinnati vs. LaSalle and unbeaten Dayton vs. Wisconsin in the Holiday Festival at New York; and Villanova vs. third-ranked Duquesne in a semifinal battle of unbeatens in the Quaker City tournament at Philadelphia.

The All-College matches Bowling Green, which knocked Seattle out of the unbeaten ranks 70-61 Wednesday night, against Wichita, 71-69 victor over Texas A&M in overtime; plus a game between Tuesday's winners, Houston and Utah State.

Here are Wednesday night's key games:

Los Angeles Classic—Lucas' 20 points and rebounding, John Havlicek's 12 points and solid defense by the whole club kept Ohio State in control against Washington, although the Huskies once got to within four points in second half. Southern Cal (8-1) got 19 points apiece from John Rudometkin and Chris Appel and held All-America Terry Dischinger to 12—less than half his average—in romp over once-beaten Purdue. Gary Cunningham's 21 points, 17 in first half, triggered UCLA's rout of Army; and Billy McGill, the nation's leading scorer, netted 39 points—a tournament record—as Utah (9-1) spilled West Virginia to its second loss in eight starts.

Big Eight—Mike Wroblewski's 20 points led fifth-ranked Kansas State (8-1) over Nebraska; and Missouri (5-4) upset Oklahoma State (7-2) 60-44 with a second half rally.

Far West at Portland, Ore.—Washington State, with Terry Ball scoring 23, spilled California 61-54, and Oregon State crushed Michigan 89-54. Tonight, it's Idaho-Portland and Oregon-Michigan State, completing the first round.

All-College at Oklahoma City—Bowling Green (6-1), down by 11 at the half, routed Seattle in second half, with 6-8 Nate Thurmond leading the way with 18 points. Then Wichita, with a 9-1 record including a one-point upset of Cincinnati, edged Texas A&M in overtime as Ernie Moore scored after swiping an Aggie pass with 11 seconds left.

Gulf South at Shreveport—Richie Goldberg's 24 points led Mississippi Southern's 81-72 triumph over Louisiana Tech; and Centenary downed Murray (Ky) 81-69.

Steubenville (Ohio) was eliminated from the Winged Foot Holiday Basketball Festival in New York in a 55-41 defeat at the hands of Belmont Abbey. Belmont Abbey led from the start and held a 27-17 halftime lead. Bernie Drennan was high for the winners with 14 points. Chuck Zerger scored 13 points for Steubenville. Belmont Abbey will meet the host New York Athletic Club for the championship Friday night.

Kentucky, ranked sixth nationally, headed the teams playing in nontournament activity. The Wildcats, with Larry Pursiful hitting for 25 points and Cotton Nash and Carroll Burchett 16 apiece, thumped Yale 79-58 for their seventh victory in eight starts. Ralph Wells scored the last four of his 21 points in overtime for Northwestern's 64-62 decision over Princeton; St. Louis snapped a four-game losing streak, 81-72 over Notre Dame; New Mexico State whipped Brigham Young 70-64 and Marquette branch, 930.

Stanton Shoots For 6th Straight; Two Other Games Set Friday

Coach Harry Diehl's unconquored Raiders (5-0) go against their Jefferson County Class A foes in the highlight of a light night of action on district courts.

Only two other games are on tap, in addition to the annual South Side Invitational Tournament at the Hookstown area school.

The meager schedule also finds Jefferson Union invading Chester and Beaver Local (1-2) traveling to United (3-2) in a battle of arch rivals.

Henderson, a former Irondale athlete, apparently has found a way to hold down the scoring of Stanton's All-Ohio center, Don (Wilt) Spires, 6-6 senior.

Though Brilliant lost two games last year and one this year to Stanton Local, Spires has been held to his lowest point accumulations against the Blue Devils.

Last season, the young giant was held to only eight at Brilliant, and 15 in the game at Irondale. Henderson's squad held Spires to 12 this year but lost, 45-36.

Other teams haven't been so successful in stopping the scoring efforts of Coach Diehl's prize pupil. Spires has tallied 111 this season for a nifty 22.2 average.

And opponents have also found that stopping or at least slowing Spires isn't the only answer to the solution of how to stop Diehl's Raiders.

Teammate Bob Mills is regarded as almost as great a scorer. Mills, 6-2 forward, is averaging 18.4 points a game with a total of 92 for the season. And he's a polished, all-around player to boot.

Brilliant brings a 3-2 record to Irondale for Friday night's return engagement. The varsity action gets underway at 8:30. The reserve tipoff is at 7:30.

Giants Lineup To Remain Same For NFL Title Clash

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—What special preparations does a team have to make before playing in a National Football League championship game?

According to Allie Sherman, whose New York Giants will meet the Green Bay Packers Sunday in Green Bay for the NFL title, the only difference in preparing for this one and any game during the season is the amount of time a team has to get ready.

"This is the third time we're going to play Green Bay this year and we are getting ready the best way we know how," he said before sending the Giants out for a drill at Yankee Stadium.

"Because this is a championship game doesn't mean we revamp our whole method of preparation or change our system," he added. "We must treat this as another game we have to play. The only difference is that we get an extra week to get ready."

Sherman indicated he will probably go with the same lineup that finished the season, which would put NFL rookie Joel Wells at a halfback slot ahead of Bob Gaiters, with Kyle Rote at flanker and Alex Webster at fullback. He said he had not made up his mind whether Charley Conerly or Y. A. Tittle would be his starting quarterback, an opinion he's held to throughout the season, although Tittle has started most games.

In the defensive backfield, Joe Morrison will keep the slot he inherited in the regular season Green Bay game because of injuries to regulars, and held for the rest of the campaign.

Speedy Alworth Seen Trouble For Alabama

NEW ORLEANS, (AP)—Nimble-footed Lance Alworth of Arkansas will help the Razorbacks even the odds against Alabama's formidable defense when the two teams meet New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl.

Alworth, a native of Houston, Tex., was the big gun in Arkansas' attack this year. He's been timed in 9.6 seconds for the 100 yard dash and 21.4 for the 220.

The remarkable Alworth ran this year for 516 yards—an average of 4.69 per carry—and caught 18 passes for another 320 yards. He also punted 32 times for a 35.3 average and led the nation in punt returns with an average of 12 yards on 28 thrusts.

The Sugar Bowl is a sell-out for the Alabama-Arkansas clash. The 83,000 tickets were gone the day ticket sales began.

Mississippi Line Battles Texas Backs

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Mississippi generally is favored to beat Texas in the Cotton Bowl Monday but the Longhorns will be glad to know that a man thoroughly qualified to give an opinion thinks they have an even chance of victory.

The man is Frank Broyles, coach of Arkansas, a team that lost to Mississippi 16-0 and to Texas 33-7. Arkansas was the only mutual opponent.

"I took a poll of my football team and the players voted 50-50 but my coaching staff gave Mississippi a slight edge—with fullback Billy Ray Adams in there. But with Adams out, I would say the teams are about equal and I would call the game a tossup," said Broyles.

Adams, injured in an automobile after the season was over, will miss the Cotton Bowl.

The Arkansas coach said Mississippi had the finest line a team of his ever played against and that Texas had the finest backfield. Broyles declared that "Texas can move the ball on anybody and Mississippi will have to play great on defense."

South Side's Holiday Cage Tournament Opens Tonight

The South Side Citizens Association will present its annual Holiday Basketball Tournament tonight at Hookstown.

Coach Dave Nichol's South Side Rams with a 2-5 record meet East Washington in tonight's opener at 7:30 while Rochester and South Fayette battled in a 9 p.m. nightcap.

Rochester has been established as slight favorites in the event.

Masked Marvel Still Holds Hex On Ranger

By The Associated Press

Jacques Plante, the masked marvel of the Montreal Canadiens' nets, still holds his hex over the New York Rangers, who haven't been able to beat him in 17 games.

Wednesday night, the Canadians turned back the Rangers, 3-0, with Plante making 24 saves. He has faced the Rangers seven times this season and the best they have for their trouble is four ties.

In the only other game of the night, the second place Toronto Maple Leafs and the Chicago Black Hawks played to a 0-0 tie

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

Such was the experience of officer Jay Carter Jr. of Salineville, who was notified recently that he had won third prize in a walleye contest after registering his 13-pound, 8½-ounce walleye landed at Bayfield Inlet in Georgian Bay, Ontario, Canada.

The lunker measured 30 inches long with a 23-inch girth. Besides winning $50, he also will be sporting a shoulder patch and a Field & Stream pin that places him in the exclusive class of fishing champions.

Jay had this to say: "I can use the $50 as a paid fishing trip to Canada again next year if I go easy on the spending, but I'm afraid I will spend most of my time fishing for trophy fish and if I don't land one there goes my crown." The poor fellow has a lot to worry about.

RUFF POND in the Zepernick area has been drained in order to install a pen stock as a part of pond management for future use.

This pond will be restocked next spring with fish desirable to a small pond. All fish in the pond were killed during last winter's freezeup. In fact it will prove what fish management can do with a pond when it starts from scratch. If all goes well, fishing should be good at this spot within a few years.

I would like to spend part of my activities this winter on dove banding. If anyone knows where there is a concentration of doves using a particular picked over cornfield, I will try my hand at live trapping and banding, something I haven't done before.

The purpose of this banding operation, now being carried on by game management and field men, is to determine the migration of doves to other states which have open seasons.

It is interesting to note how numerous doves now winter over in Ohio, something most unusual 25 years ago.

Injury Halts Schayes' Long Game Streak

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dolph Schayes' record performance of 706 consecutive games during the regular season and 765, including playoffs, in the National Basketball Association has been halted by an injury.

The 33-year-old Syracuse veteran missed Wednesday night's game due to emergency surgery on his right cheek bone. It was shattered in a collision with Al Attles in a game in Boston Tuesday night.

A hospital spokesman said he doubted Schayes could play for several weeks. It was the first game the veteran forward missed since Feb. 17, 1952.

The Nats missed Schayes as they lost to Los Angeles 119-111. Elgin Baylor led the Lakers with 48 points while teammate Jerry West added 28. Lee Shaffer was high for the Nats with 23 points.

In the nightcap of the doubleheader Philadelphia defeated New York 131-119 as Wilt Chamberlain pushed in 53 points to go over the 50 mark for the 20th time this year.

In other Wednesday night games, Jack Twyman pushed in 34 points to highlight a 142-117 Cincinnati victory over St. Louis. Detroit beat Chicago 121-93 behind the scoring of Gene Shue, who collected 26 points.

Buzz Nutter Blasts Fans Of Pittsburgh

HUNTINGTON (AP) — Buzz Nutter, offensive center for the Pittsburgh Steelers, has some words that are bound to burn the ears of the Pittsburgh fans.

Back in his home town for the holidays, Nutter told Sports Editor Ernie Salvatore of the Huntington Advertiser that Pittsburgh is "the worst sports town in the country because they have the worst fans."

Nutter spent seven seasons with the Baltimore Colts and last season was his first with the Steelers.

"In Baltimore, they (the fans) give you 100 per cent support," Nutter said.

"Not in Pittsburgh. All they want is to boo."

4 Teams Vie In Tourney At Canton

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Kent State goes into Canton's second annual Collegiate Basketball Tournament tonight with a 1-3 record, but the Golden Flashes will be strengthened by the return of captain Frank Turley to the lineup.

Turley missed the early season games because he was declared academically ineligible.

The Citadel (2-3) opens the tournament against West Virginia Wesleyan. Kent State meets Westminster in the nightcap. The finals are Friday night.

It will be homecoming for Gary Daniels of the Citadel, former Canton Lincoln High School player. Daniels, 6-foot-5 co-captain of The Citadel squad, has averaged 26 points a game this season.

Westminster, which has had a team in the NAIA tournament at Kansas City the last three seasons, will be led by Ron Galbraith 6-foot senior considered one of the greatest players in the school's history.

Lineups For Shrine Game Set Except Quarterbacks

By HARRY JUPITER
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The lineups for the 37th Shrine East-West football game Saturday are set—except for the quarterbacks.

Both head coaches, Joe Kuharich of the East and Jim Owens of the West, still were trying to decide today between a pair of outstanding quarterbacks on each squad.

Kuharich said he probably wouldn't decide until game time whether the East quarterback would be Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State or Ron Miller of Wisconsin.

Owens had a similar problem, trying to choose between John Hadl of Kansas and Mel Melin of Washington State.

The West loaded its biggest men into its defensive line in hopes of halting East smashers Ernie Davis of Syracuse and Bob Ferguson of Ohio State, a sensational pair of All-America runners.

The East stacked up what might be an all Big Ten line for its defensive unit, with six Big Ten linemen and Nick Buoniconti of Notre Dame.

Kuharich still was undecided too on whether he would use Angelo Daberio of Notre Dame or Gary Ballman of Michigan State as the East flanker back. Daberio is the smallest man on either squad at 5-foot-8 and 165 pounds but the little guy from Donora, Pa., is rugged.

In addition to the quarterback, the West offensive backfield stacked up as Curtis McClinton of Kansas and Mack Burton of San Jose State at halfbacks and Ron Bull of Baylor at fullback.

Giants Lineup To Remain Same For NFL Title Clash

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—What special preparations does a team have to make before playing in a National Football League championship game?

According to Allie Sherman, whose New York Giants will meet the Green Bay Packers Sunday in Green Bay for the NFL title, the only difference in preparing for this one and any game during the season is the amount of time a team has to get ready.

"This is the third time we're going to play Green Bay this year and we are getting ready the best way we know how," he said before sending the Giants out for a drill at Yankee Stadium.

"Because this is a championship game doesn't mean we revamp our whole method of preparation or change our system," he added. "We must treat this as another game we have to play. The only difference is that we get an extra week to get ready."

Sherman indicated he will probably go with the same lineup that finished the season, which would put NFL rookie Joel Wells at a halfback slot ahead of Bob Gaiters, with Kyle Rote at flanker and Alex Webster at fullback. He said he had not made up his mind whether Charley Conerly or Y. A. Tittle would be his starting quarterback, an opinion he's held to throughout the season, although Tittle has started most games.

In the defensive backfield, Joe Morrison will keep the slot he inherited in the regular season Green Bay game because of injuries to regulars, and held for the rest of the campaign.

Speedy Alworth Seen Trouble For Alabama

NEW ORLEANS, (AP)—Nimble-footed Lance Alworth of Arkansas will help the Razorbacks even the odds against Alabama's formidable defense when the two teams meet New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl.

Alworth, a native of Houston, Tex., was the big gun in Arkansas' attack this year. He's been timed in 9.6 seconds for the 100 yard dash and 21.4 for the 220.

The remarkable Alworth ran this year for 516 yards—an average of 4.69 per carry—and caught 18 passes for another 320 yards. He also punted 32 times for a 35.3 average and led the nation in punt returns with an average of 12 yards on 28 thrusts.

The Sugar Bowl is a sell-out for the Alabama-Arkansas clash. The 83,000 tickets were gone the day ticket sales began.

Mississippi Line Battles Texas Backs

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Mississippi generally is favored to beat Texas in the Cotton Bowl Monday but the Longhorns will be glad to know that a man thoroughly qualified to give an opinion thinks they have an even chance of victory.

The man is Frank Broyles, coach of Arkansas, a team that lost to Mississippi 16-0 and to Texas 33-7. Arkansas was the only mutual opponent.

"I took a poll of my football team and the players voted 50-50 but my coaching staff gave Mississippi a slight edge—with fullback Billy Ray Adams in there. But with Adams out, I would say the teams are about equal and I would call the game a tossup," said Broyles.

Adams, injured in an automobile after the season was over, will miss the Cotton Bowl.

The Arkansas coach said Mississippi had the finest line a team of his ever played against and that Texas had the finest backfield. Broyles declared that "Texas can move the ball on anybody and Mississippi will have to play great on defense."

Such was the experience of officer Jay Carter Jr. of Salineville, who was notified recently that he had won third prize in a walleye contest after registering his 13-pound, 8½-ounce walleye landed at Bayfield Inlet in Georgian Bay, Ontario, Canada.

The lunker measured 30 inches long with a 23-inch girth. Besides winning $50, he also will be sporting a shoulder patch and a Field & Stream pin that places him in the exclusive class of fishing champions.

Jay had this to say: "I can use the $50 as a paid fishing trip to Canada again next year if I go easy on the spending, but I'm afraid I will spend most of my time fishing for trophy fish and if I don't land one there goes my crown." The poor fellow has a lot to worry about.

RUFF POND in the Zepernick area has been drained in order to install a pen stock as a part of pond management for future use.

This pond will be restocked next spring with fish desirable to a small pond. All fish in the pond were killed during last winter's freezeup. In fact it will prove what fish management can do with a pond when it starts from scratch. If all goes well, fishing should be good at this spot within a few years.

I would like to spend part of my activities this winter on dove banding. If anyone knows where there is a concentration of doves using a particular picked over cornfield, I will try my hand at live trapping and banding, something I haven't done before.

The purpose of this banding operation, now being carried on by game management and field men, is to determine the migration of doves to other states which have open seasons.

It is interesting to note how numerous doves now winter over in Ohio, something most unusual 25 years ago.

The mechanical cornpickers now in use scatter an average of three bushels of corn per acre. This provides sufficient food for doves who are just as winter hearty as a cardinal when sufficient food is available. Doves are classified as migrating birds, but many of our so-called migrating birds winter over if food is available.

Masked Marvel Still Holds Hex On Ranger

Wednesday night, the Canadians turned back the Rangers, 3-0, with Plante making 24 saves. He has faced the Rangers seven times this season and the best they have for their trouble is four ties.

In the only other game of the night, the second place Toronto Maple Leafs and the Chicago Black Hawks played to a 0-0 tie

Children Can Help With Winter Hazards

When there is ice and snow, the number of broken hips and other injuries from falls, especially in the case of older persons, greatly increases. These hazards are greatest, it seems, in and about rural homes and other outlying areas. So much space can be covered with snow and ice that porches, steps and paths may rarely be completely cleared, sanded or salted. In recent years I have been amazed at how many icy steps and walks around rural homes I have seen all winter long. With a little foresight and not much effort, a supply of sand or cinders scattered on these places could add greatly to their safety. Any child over 8 or 10 could take responsibility for such a safety measure for the family.

ALTHOUGH SALT may do some injury to paint or to concrete walks, even to grass and shrubs by the walk, its application could contribute enough safety to outweigh these difficulties.

Many rural homes, too have ashes which, when scattered on icy places, afford considerable safety. Yet many a rural mother, fearful of damage to her kitchen floors or rugs, will forbid such measures. She puts tidiness ahead of safety.

Some tragic falls occur on a morning following a sleet storm, when members of the family go out the door in haste, unaware of the slippery steps and walks.

Available on the market are cleats which may be fastened to shoes. Also, anybody may improvise a walking stick with a sharp nail on its lower end as a helper for safety on slippery places.

Furthermore, one should be watchful, around farm buildings, or large heaps of ice and snow sliding from roofs.

Too, there are dangers from slippery places around the urban home.

CHILDREN OLD enough to sweep and shovel snow and remove ice from the steps, path and sidewalks and to scatter sand, cinders or salt, should be trained to share or take responsibility for doing this. To have a part in promoting the welfare of the whole family and their friends is good character education for them. Children soon discover that removal of snow as soon as possible after it falls may prevent the forming of ice.

While children of any age may be hurt from falls on slippery places, they don't have so far to fall, they are more agile, and their bones are not so easily broken as in the case of older persons. Aged persons do well to stay indoors on icy mornings.

And let us remember that when any member of the family is seriously injured by a fall, all other members, including the children, are affected in some way, often to a serious degree.

My bulletins "First Steps in Training Tot in Safety" and "Educating Your Child in Responsibility," may be had by sending a self - addressed stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Keep In Trim

Dieters Should Make Calories Count

Creeping pounds are an eternal problem today simply because we are not calorie spenders. Nature uses calories according to the muscle demand for energy. In this push - button age, who uses muscles?

Ida Jean Kain

Well, thank heaven for calorie arithmetic — without it what would we do today? We hear so much about counting calories, but what we really need to do is to make our calories count toward grade A nutrition.

The measure of the fuel content of food is only a quantitative term. It gives no clue to the quality of the calories. . .no indication whether they are empty or protective in terms of essential nutrients. Many nutritionists term this empty vs. full calories. . . but full sounds so fattening. At any rate, empty calories provide fuel, but very little protection from the nutrient standpoint.

GET ACQUAINTED with the term nutrients. . .be as familiar with nutrients as with calories. The nutrients — protein, minerals and vitamins — are essential to the upkeep and renewal of body tissue. Without adequate amounts of the vital nutrients, body repair work is shoddy.

Nature can use any kind of food for fuel, but repair material comes chiefly from the protective foods. When calories are lessened, as they must be in order to prevent creeping pounds, the quality of the daily calories becomes of utmost importance.

Fortunately, foods high in body-replenishing nutrients — lean meat, fish and fowl, eggs, cottage cheese, skim milk and buttermilk, green and yellow vegetables and fruits — are not the weight-makers. For this reason, a reducing diet, and a weight control pattern of eating based on the protective foods, affords perfect nutrition.

Our present day American way of eating is often excessive in empty calories. Sources of empty calories are saturated fats, both animal and solid cooking fats; sugar, poor-quality baked goods and of course, alcohol.

EMPTY CALORIES are the weight-makers! Ironical as it may seem, overweight is our most dangerous form of malnutrition today. In short, we get too many calories from the foods which furnish too little protection.

Today, more than at any other time in our history, our calories must count for good nutrition.

Send a stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for "Choose To Lose Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Children Can Help With Winter Hazards

When there is ice and snow, the number of broken hips and other injuries from falls, especially in the case of older persons, greatly increases. These hazards are greatest, it seems, in and about rural homes and other outlying areas. So much space can be covered with snow and ice that porches, steps and paths may rarely be completely cleared, sanded or salted. In recent years I have been amazed at how many icy steps and walks around rural homes I have seen all winter long. With a little foresight and not much effort, a supply of sand or cinders scattered on these places could add greatly to their safety. Any child over 8 or 10 could take responsibility for such a safety measure for the family.

ALTHOUGH SALT may do some injury to paint or to concrete walks, even to grass and shrubs by the walk, its application could contribute enough safety to outweigh these difficulties.

Many rural homes, too have ashes which, when scattered on icy places, afford considerable safety. Yet many a rural mother, fearful of damage to her kitchen floors or rugs, will forbid such measures. She puts tidiness ahead of safety.

Some tragic falls occur on a morning following a sleet storm, when members of the family go out the door in haste, unaware of the slippery steps and walks. Available on the market are cleats which may be fastened to shoes. Also, anybody may improvise a walking stick with a sharp nail on its lower end as a helper for safety on slippery places.

Furthermore, one should be watchful, around farm buildings, or large heaps of ice and snow sliding from roofs.

Too, there are dangers from slippery places around the urban home.

CHILDREN OLD enough to sweep and shovel snow and remove ice from the steps, path and sidewalks and to scatter sand, cinders or salt, should be trained to share or take responsibility for doing this. To have a part in promoting the welfare of the whole family and their friends is good character education for them. Children soon discover that removal of snow as soon as possible after it falls may prevent the forming of ice.

While children of any age may be hurt from falls on slippery places, they don't have so far to fall, they are more agile, and their bones are not so easily broken as in the case of older persons. Aged persons do well to stay indoors on icy mornings.

And let us remember that when any member of the family is seriously injured by a fall, all other members, including the children, are affected in some way, often to a serious degree.

My bulletins "First Steps in Training Tot in Safety" and "Educating Your Child in Responsibility," may be had by sending a self - addressed stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Dieters Should Make Calories Count

Creeping pounds are an eternal problem today simply because we are not calorie spenders. Nature uses calories according to the muscle demand for energy. In this push - button age, who uses muscles?

Ida Jean Kain

Well, thank heaven for calorie arithmetic — without it what would we do today? We hear so much about counting calories, but what we really need to do is to make our calories count toward grade A nutrition.

The measure of the fuel content of food is only a quantitative term. It gives no clue to the quality of the calories. . .no indication whether they are empty or protective in terms of essential nutrients. Many nutritionists term this empty vs. full calories. . . but full sounds so fattening. At any rate, empty calories provide fuel, but very little protection from the nutrient standpoint.

GET ACQUAINTED with the term nutrients. . .be as familiar with nutrients as with calories. The nutrients — protein, minerals and vitamins — are essential to the upkeep and renewal of body tissue. Without adequate amounts of the vital nutrients, body repair work is shoddy.

Nature can use any kind of food for fuel, but repair material comes chiefly from the protective foods. When calories are lessened, as they must be in order to prevent creeping pounds, the quality of the daily calories becomes of utmost importance.

Fortunately, foods high in body-replenishing nutrients — lean meat, fish and fowl, eggs, cottage cheese, skim milk and buttermilk, green and yellow vegetables and fruits — are not the weight-makers. For this reason, a reducing diet, and a weight control pattern of eating based on the protective foods, affords perfect nutrition.

Our present day American way of eating is often excessive in empty calories. Sources of empty calories are saturated fats, both animal and solid cooking fats; sugar, poor-quality baked goods and of course, alcohol.

EMPTY CALORIES are the weight-makers! Ironical as it may seem, overweight is our most dangerous form of malnutrition today. In short, we get too many calories from the foods which furnish too little protection.

Today, more than at any other time in our history, our calories must count for good nutrition.

Send a stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for "Choose To Lose Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Out Of The Air

HAL HUMPHREY

Sloane Really Isn't On Every Week

Faithful television watchers often get the impression they are watching Everett Sloane every week. He doesn't really work that much, but when he does come on your screen it's like a three - alarm fire. Sloane is not easy to forget.

Hal Humphrey

He knows how to act, and and in a medium where a lot of nonactors are performing, this alone sets him off in your memory. Sloane was forced to go to Hollywood in 1956 when "live" TV was dying out in New York.

"I was practically commuting anyway, because I made 13 trips to Hollywood that year," he recalls.

LIKE MOST true artists, loane is not very diplomatic. Until he went to Hollywood, he saw no reason not to speak his mind. Sloane found to his dismay that the people there who can do you the most good also generally have the thinnest skins.

It's extremely difficult for him to be tolerant of slipshod work, but since the fast pace of TV breeds it, Sloane has had to learn to keep a civil tongue in his head —or run the risk of winding up as a shoe clerk.

This season Sloane has done only a "Follow the Sun," a "Target: The Corruptors" and a "Theater" which comes on the air next Sunday. He has had fewer jobs this season, because there are fewer spots for the free-lance actor.

"WHEN YOU HAVE four regular heroes on a series, what's left?" he asks. "There are a few series now, however, which give the actor some hope. I think Dick Powell's is one, and also 'Bus Stop.' With most of the others, a guest star is only an adjunct to the regulars."

"You see any other hopeful signs for TV?" I ask.

"We didn't get a new Western this season. That's another hope. I still believe there must be people like me would rather watch reruns of 'Playhouse 90' instead of just junk."

Sloane blames "I Love Lucy" for the shape of TV today.

"That series started the whole thing. Everyone is always interested in money, and when 'I Love Lucy' became a success, and the potential from reruns was seen, Hollywood took the cue to put everything on film with regular characters."

"ARE REGULAR characters a bad thing?"

"They certainly eliminate suspense in a cops series. The viewer must know that the regulars are going to come through. It's even the same in these medical series. No matter how infected 'Ben Casey' becomes, you know he's going to be on duty next week," says Sloane, rather sadly.

Sloane himself played a policeman on a CBS radio series called "21st Precinct" from 1953 to 1956. He did it so convincingly that he was paged by a Hollywood producer to make a pilot film for TV. When Sloane showed up, the producer said, "You don't look like a police captain."

THIS WAS the same Sloane who on TV by then had played Vincent Van Gogh and the chief officer in "Trial of Henry Wirz, Andersonville Jailer" (Climax).

It's a wonder Sloane didn't tell his producer that he didn't look like a producer. Probably because he was too stunned to get his vocal cords operative in time.

He still looks back fondly on his days with Orson Welles and the old Mercury Theater players but seems fairly content to live in Brentwood with his wife and a daughter presently going to UCLA. A son is in the service.

When things get too sticky, Sloane will take on a sideline like some Sean O'Casey readings at UCLA — "to get my kicks." Meanwhile, he will go on making indelible impressions on TV viewers whenever given the chance, even though, as he says, "most of it won't resound to my everlasting glory."

Man Slain After Killing One Executive, Wounding 2

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Officials at the Ohio Overall Cleaning Co. here described 47-year-old Spencer Payne as usually calm and easy - going, but when Payne came to the plant Wednesday he sat down in front of his locker and refused to go to work.

On occasion during the 10 years Payne worked at the plant he had come to work intoxicated, officials said, and had been suspended.

Wednesday Payne was not suspended. Production Manager Roy A. Hoge fired him.

Payne apparently went berserk. He shot and killed Hoge and wounded two other executives. He went through the plant firing two guns wildly at employes, then fled from the building, commandeered a car and was killed in a gun battle with police officers.

One of the executives, Arthur Ponds, 52, of Garfield Heights, was reported in serious condition. He was shot in the jaw.

Gerald Connolly, 57, of East Cleveland, was shot in the abdomen and was reported in fair condition.

Although none of the other shots fired by Payne hit anyone, 14 employes were sent to hospitals for treatment of shock and 75 others were given sedatives at the plant.

Three persons were in the car which Payne commandeered.

When two policemen approached the car, Payne fired two shots at them and the three other persons jumped from the vehicle. Then the officers opened fire with revolvers and shotguns.

Payne was married and had two married daughters.

Girl, 8, Won't Face Shooting Death Count

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — Authorities said no charges will be filed against an 8-year-old girl who deputies said pulled the trigger in the shooting death of Miss Vera Metter, 20, Tuesday.

Following a coroner's inquest here Wednesday, the death was ruled a suicide. Testimony disclosed that Miss Metter, who it was learned was expecting a baby, held a .22 caliber rifle against her abdomen and insisted that her 8-year-old sister pull the trigger.

The victim, who the inquest board said apparently did not plan to take her own life, died en route to a hospital.

Soldiers, Sailors Unit Wins Appropriation

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Soldiers and Sailors Relief Commission has won its $317,275 appropriation from Hamilton County commissioners after a legal fight.

The commission allotted the funds Wednesday after losing in common pleas and state appeals courts on their contention the relief group should be merged with general county welfare services.

Sloane Really Isn't On Every Week

Faithful television watchers often get the impression they are watching Everett Sloane every week. He doesn't really work that much, but when he does come on your screen it's like a three - alarm fire. Sloane is not easy to forget.

Hal Humphrey

He knows how to act, and and in a medium where a lot of nonactors are performing, this alone sets him off in your memory. Sloane was forced to go to Hollywood in 1956 when "live" TV was dying out in New York.

"I was practically commuting anyway, because I made 13 trips to Hollywood that year," he recalls.

LIKE MOST true artists, loane is not very diplomatic. Until he went to Hollywood, he saw no reason not to speak his mind. Sloane found to his dismay that the people there who can do you the most good also generally have the thinnest skins.

It's extremely difficult for him to be tolerant of slipshod work, but since the fast pace of TV breeds it, Sloane has had to learn to keep a civil tongue in his head —or run the risk of winding up as a shoe clerk.

This season Sloane has done only a "Follow the Sun," a "Target: The Corruptors" and a "Theater" which comes on the air next Sunday. He has had fewer jobs this season, because there are fewer spots for the free-lance actor.

"WHEN YOU HAVE four regular heroes on a series, what's left?" he asks. "There are a few series now, however, which give the actor some hope. I think Dick Powell's is one, and also 'Bus Stop.' With most of the others, a guest star is only an adjunct to the regulars."

"You see any other hopeful signs for TV?" I ask.

"We didn't get a new Western this season. That's another hope. I still believe there must be people like me would rather watch reruns of 'Playhouse 90' instead of just junk."

Sloane blames "I Love Lucy" for the shape of TV today.

"That series started the whole thing. Everyone is always interested in money, and when 'I Love Lucy' became a success, and the potential from reruns was seen, Hollywood took the cue to put everything on film with regular characters."

"ARE REGULAR characters a bad thing?"

"They certainly eliminate suspense in a cops series. The viewer must know that the regulars are going to come through. It's even the same in these medical series. No matter how infected 'Ben Casey' becomes, you know he's going to be on duty next week," says Sloane, rather sadly.

THIS WAS the same Sloane who on TV by then had played Vincent Van Gogh and the chief officer in "Trial of Henry Wirz, Andersonville Jailer" (Climax).

It's a wonder Sloane didn't tell his producer that he didn't look like a producer. Probably because he was too stunned to get his vocal cords operative in time.

He still looks back fondly on his days with Orson Welles and the old Mercury Theater players but seems fairly content to live in Brentwood with his wife and a daughter presently going to UCLA. A son is in the service.

Man Slain After Killing One Executive, Wounding 2

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Officials at the Ohio Overall Cleaning Co. here described 47-year-old Spencer Payne as usually calm and easy - going, but when Payne came to the plant Wednesday he sat down in front of his locker and refused to go to work.

On occasion during the 10 years Payne worked at the plant he had come to work intoxicated, officials said, and had been suspended.

Wednesday Payne was not suspended. Production Manager Roy A. Hoge fired him.

Payne apparently went berserk. He shot and killed Hoge and wounded two other executives. He went through the plant firing two guns wildly at employes, then fled from the building, commandeered a car and was killed in a gun battle with police officers.

One of the executives, Arthur Ponds, 52, of Garfield Heights, was reported in serious condition. He was shot in the jaw.

Gerald Connolly, 57, of East Cleveland, was shot in the abdomen and was reported in fair condition.

Although none of the other shots fired by Payne hit anyone, 14 employes were sent to hospitals for treatment of shock and 75 others were given sedatives at the plant.

Three persons were in the car which Payne commandeered.

When two policemen approached the car, Payne fired two shots at them and the three other persons jumped from the vehicle. Then the officers opened fire with revolvers and shotguns.

Payne was married and had two married daughters.
